

All the News That's Fit to Print.

The Daily Republican.

What Is Home Without the Republican

Vol. 9. No. 123.

Rushville, Indiana, Saturday Evening, August 3, 1912.

Single Copies, 2 Cents.

EVERYTHING IS SPIC AND SPAN

Air of Wholesomeness Pervades City Park Where Chautauqua Will Open Tomorrow.

THE DECORATION COMPLETED

Scout Commissioner And Platform Manager Will Come Early Monday to Begin Work.

Rushville and Rush county people are looking forward to the opening of the ninth annual Rush county chautauqua at the Coliseum in the city park tomorrow afternoon. The time has approached to which many residents of the city and the county look forward with much anticipation.

Everything was placed in readiness today for the opening tomorrow, and the finishing touches were put on by the various committees in charge. The grounds and buildings look spic and span this year as the result of the general overhauling. The painting of the Coliseum and the other buildings added much to the beauty of the place, and the building of cinder walks and other improvements assisted materially. The young trees planted by the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution add to the attractiveness of the place.

Mrs. Rush G. Badd and Mrs. F. G. Hackleman have been working industriously for the last two days arranging the interior decorations. They have prepared the stage so that it now presents a beautiful front, and the general appearance of cleanliness and wholesomeness pervades the whole place.

W. E. Hopkins, the Boy Scout commissioner from Chicago, will arrive here Monday morning at 8:56 o'clock over the C. H. & D. He desires to meet all of the Boy Scouts who intend to participate in the Boy Scout activities during the week at nine-thirty o'clock Monday morning at the chautauqua grounds.

The Boy Scout work under the direction of Mr. Hopkins is expected to be one of the most pleasant features of the chautauqua this year. It is thought the week spent here by him will make the interest in the boy's organization greater. He will illustrate the many manly achievements taught by the Boy Scout organization and will doubtless arouse such a desire within the boys themselves that they will carry it on after he has left with great zeal.

Prof. Paul M. Pearson will arrive Monday morning at 5:29 o'clock over the C. H. & D. He will have many duties. Besides being an instructor in the teachers institute, he will be the chautauqua platform manager and will deliver a series of lecture-recitals four afternoons in the week.

The chautauqua will be opened promptly at two-fifteen o'clock Sunday afternoon. The Bertha Wooden orchestra, which comes for a two days' stay, will give a forty-five minutes prelude beginning at two-thirty o'clock, after which Dr. W. E. Biederwolf will speak. A prelude of the same length will be given in the evening by the women entertainers, and Dr. Biederwolf will deliver another address at eight-fifteen o'clock.

Newcastle Times: This paper has never agreed with James E. Watson in politics, but it has never had occasion to question his political or official integrity. The present efforts of certain newspapers to implicate him in transactions that they claim were not regular, will likely fail. The best results in politics are not accomplished by mud-slinging and this effort aimed at Mr. Watson will fail.

Assembly Musical Attraction

ORPHEAN QUARTET.

THERE WAS NOT A CLEAR DAY IN JULY

Weather Station Report Shows Temperature Last Month Was 1.8 Below Normal Average.

RAINFALL 61 PER CENT MORE

The monthly meteorological summary for the Indianapolis weather station for July shows that the average daily temperature failed by 1.8 degrees to equal the normal average for the month of July, based on records of forty-two years. The rainfall for the month, however, was 6.75 inches, which is 2.62 inches, or about 61 per cent greater than the usual rainfall in July. The highest temperature for the month was recorded July 24, when the thermometer reached 93. The lowest was 58 on July 19.

The report also shows that since January 1, the temperature has averaged four degrees a day less than the normal temperature, which is the average for the forty-two years the station has been operated. The greatest velocity of the wind registered was on July 13, when it traveled forty-one miles an hour. The number of clear days is given as none, the number of partly cloudy days twenty-two, the number of cloudy days nine and the number on which rain fell fifteen. There were ten thunderstorms.

THRILLING ACT FOR COUNTY FAIR

Free Attraction That Puts Old Loop-the Loop to Shame is Obtained.

MAN AND WOMAN DO STUNT

"Mlle. LaBella and Dare Devil Harley in Death Defying Feat" is the way the big bill posters will read advertising the big free attraction for the annual Rush county fair which will be held August 20 to 23 inclusive. Will King, the secretary, has just signed a contract for the act.

The woman rides a miniature automobile down a steep incline fifty feet and still shoots up into the air something after the order of the loop-the-loop act. But here's where the thriller comes in. Suspended thirty-five feet in the air, hanging by a bar, is the man who grasps the woman's hand, and the car falls into a net below.

AUTO ACCIDENT MAY PROVE FATAL

Machine Driven by William Merrill Passed Over Russell Webber, Injuring Him Internally.

RECOVERY IS VERY DOUBTFUL

Was Picking up Fishing Pole When Hit—Said to Have Been Unavoidable.

Russell Webber, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Webber, 523 West Fifth street, was perhaps fatally injured late yesterday afternoon when he was accidentally run over by an automobile driven by William Merrill, a local grocer.

The machine passed over the little boy's body, injuring him internally. His injuries are of such a nature that it has not been definitely determined as to their exact seriousness, but he may not recover.

The accident occurred near the corner of Third and Sexton streets about 5:30 o'clock. The Webber boy in company with some companions had been fishing. They were riding on a wagon and as they came near the corner of Third and Sexton streets, the little boy dropped his fishing pole and jumped from the wagon to recover it. Just as he was leaning over to pick it up the automobile hit him and both front and rear wheels passed over his body. Mr. Merrill was returning from Arlington and according to his statement had slowed down to make the turn into Sexton street. He stated that he failed to see the boy until it was too late.

Mr. Merrill says that at the time he was not going over three or four miles an hour as he had made the turn and could not do so going fast. The accident is said to have been unavoidable. The Webber boy was taken home immediately after the accident. He suffered great pain and at times was unconscious. No bones were broken.

MANY REPUBLICANS PLAN TO ATTEND

Republican State Convention Will be Different Because it Will be One Day Meeting.

OPENS TUES. MORNING AT 9:30

From present indications a large crowd of Republicans will go from this city and county for the Republican State convention in Indianapolis next Tuesday. Local Republicans will be attracted especially by this convention more than any other due to the fact that James E. Watson is scheduled to deliver the keynote speech and sound the campaign battle cry in Indiana.

Fred Simms, chairman of the State committee, has given much prominence to the fact that the convention will be a one day meeting. It is feared that some Republicans will forget this as it has always been the custom in the past to hold the convention over. The convention will be opened promptly at nine-thirty o'clock Tuesday morning. It is pointed out that there will be some difficulty in attending to all the business in one day as there are many candidates. The same set of delegates as served in the early convention will represent Rush county in this convention.

CREW IS HELD RESPONSIBLE

According to Amended Criminal Code
They May be Imprisoned
For Violation.

CROSSING OPINION IS VALID

Honan Declares it Means Either Interurban or Train Must Stop at Crossing.

Local traction officials have been informed that Attorney General Honan has given literal interpretation of the law having to do with the grade crossings of steam lines or electric lines.

Under the amended criminal code engineers on steam roads and motormen on traction lines are held personally responsible for deaths from accidents on their lines. The roads are exempt from responsibility.

Conductors and motormen who hold crossings over the allotted time will have to stand the penalty even though they are obeying orders from their superiors. The penalties for such law violations, it has been ascertained, applies only to them.

For killing anyone at a crossing of two railroads while failing to obey the stop law, the motorman or engineer is liable to imprisonment for from two to fourteen years. For failing to stop at such crossings the driver of a traction car or steam engine is liable to a fine of from $10 to $50 for the first offense; a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $200, or imprisonment for two to six months, or both for the third offense. Responsibility is in motormen and engineers. There is no punishment provided for the company that enforces or allows violations.

The law states that wherever a steam line crosses another steam line, where a steam line crosses an electric line, or where an electric line crosses an electric line, unless there is a system of interlocking switches, the train or car approaching the crossing must stop, send a man ahead to look in each direction and then give the signal to go ahead. This law is plain, but the Indiana Railroad Commission held that the section referred to did not apply inside of the corporation limits of cities or towns. The attorney general is said to have given the commission an opinion that the law means just what it says, and that it applies everywhere in the State.

If it were enforced here it would mean that all of the trains on the four railroads, the C. H. & D., Big Four, Pennsylvania and L. E. & W. would have to stop before crossing the I. & C. car tracks as every railroad entering the city crosses the interurban tracks.

The traction company stops all cars before crossings and sends the conductor ahead to flag. The steam roads do not stop trains at crossings but if the opinion of the attorney general is taken seriously and the law enforced they will have to hereafter.

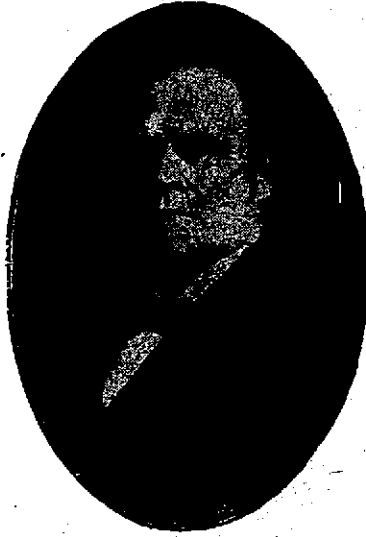

Local employees of traction and steam roads are interested because the law applies here.

Evasion of the law, in the opinion of railroad men, is possible, save in a brazen manner that invites punishment from the moment of commission. The language of the criminal code, they say, is too plain.

THE WEATHER

Fair weather and continued cooler tonight and Sunday.

Will Lecture Tuesday

GOV. R. B. GLENN.

ARE ASSOCIATED IN THE SAME WORK

The Rev. F. B. Stearns Director of Evangelists Association of Which Dr. Biederwolf is President.

HE WILL ENTERTAIN SPEAKER

The Rev. W. E. Biederwolf, D. D., who will open the chautauqua program tomorrow, will be entertained by the Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Stearns, over Sunday. Mr. Stearns and Dr. Biederwolf have been friends for some years. In addition to this, Mr. Stearns is on the board of directors of the Interdenominational Association of Evangelists, of which Dr. Biederwolf is the president, and they will take up some matters pertaining to the work of the association while he is here. Dr. Biederwolf will arrive at 5:34 this evening, from the west.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN KILLED BY I. & C.

Victim of Accident at Stop 6 Believed to be Fritz Dimm or Antone Zerpman.

WAS SITTING ON THE TRACK

An unidentified man, whose name is believed to be Fritz Dimm or Antone Zerpman, was struck and instantly killed last night by a limited car at stop 6 on the Rushville division of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati traction company. The body, badly mangled, was taken to Indianapolis on the interurban and left at the morgue.

George P. Harriman, 632 Udell street, Indianapolis, motorman in charge of the interurban, said that as he approached the crossing he saw the man sitting on the track. He said he applied his brakes but that he was unable to stop before the man was struck. The body was thrown for a short distance, one of the feet being cut off above the ankle. A watch in the man's pocket was running when the body was examined by Coroner Durham.

A note book in the man's pocket contained the names of Dimm and Zerpman written in German. The man is about fifty years old, had gray hair, a mustache and wore blue overalls.

The Federal Chemical Company brought suit in the circuit court today against Matthew H. Fielding to foreclose a mortgage, demanding $875.

SAYS WATSON MADE FRIENDS

Claude Simpson, Back Here on Visit, Declares Statesman Has Admirers in Roswell, N. M.

WON DURING THE CONVENTION

Asserts Many Republicans Favored
Him For President—Chaves County is For Taft.

"If Republicans in Roswell had had a vote in the Republican national convention, James E. Watson would have been nominated for President," said Claude Simpson of Roswell, New Mexico, who is here for a short visit. "Mr. Watson made hundreds of friends in the new State during that convention. There was considerable pre-convention Roosevelt sentiment there, and although there was a tendency to sympathize with the Roosevelt forces during the first few hours of the convention, Mr. Watson had the crowd of 'bulletin readers' with him before the convention was a day old."

"If Mr. Watson made as many friends everywhere as he did in Roswell during the convention in Chicago, he undoubtedly would have polled a full Republican vote if he had been nominated."

"The big thing which pleased our people was the extreme fairness which he showed toward the bitter attacks of the Roosevelt forces. He and Governor Hadley were, of course, the two men who were most talked about, and the people in Roswell were equally satisfied with each. It was a common thing to hear the hope expressed that the ticket would be Watson and Hadley. Governor Hadley already had a warm place in the hearts of Roswell people because until a few months ago he owned an irrigated farm near the city. You can imagine that I felt real proud of the fact that I was from Jim Watson's town, and I didn't hesitate to let people know it, either."

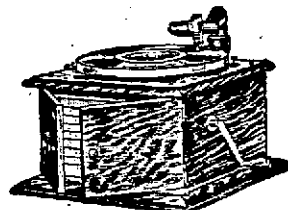

"There is great interest in the coming election in our State. Men forty and fifty years old will cast their first vote for president, this being the first presidential year we have had statehood. And I am proud to say that the Republicans we have in Roswell are willing to abide by the decision of the majority and will vote for Taft, although many of them were for Roosevelt before the convention. There may be a few who have a grievance as in other places, but the indications now are that Chaves county will poll its normal Republican vote. Since our county was the strong Roosevelt county in the State I should think it would be safe to say the whole State will continue to be Republican and give its electoral vote to Taft."

HAD TO COOK HIS MEALS

Partly For That Reason Charles A.
Salzer Asks Divorce.

Partly because she would not cook his meals, Charles A. Salzer has brought suit in the circuit court for divorce from Lorena Salzer. He alleges she falsely accused him of infidelity and denounced and upbraided him before the neighbors and their children. She moved to Indianapolis, the complaint says, and ordered him "not to set foot in her house." They lived together nine years.

$15
for this genuine Victor-Victrola

bearing the famous Victor trademark

—a guarantee of quality

Come in and hear this instrument play your favorite music.
Other style Victor-Victrolas $25 to $200. Victrolas $10 to $100. Easy terms, if desired.

Geo. C. Wyatt & Co.

HE'D GET IT

Harry—I hear that your father-in-law has cut you out of his will.
Thomas—I don't care. I'm teaching him to play poker.

Water in bluing is adulteration.
Glass and water make liquid blue costly. Buy Red Cross Ball Blue, makes clothes whiter than snow.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

Marigold Salve

Will Cure Your

Piles

25c A Box 25c

Hargrove & Mullin.

REPUBLICANS GETTING BUSY

Final Plans for Next Tuesday's State Convention.

WATSON TO BE "KEYNOTER"

Candidate For Governor Four Years Ago Will Sound the Battle Cry of Indiana's Republican Hosts Assembled in State Convention at Indianapolis Next Week—Several Additions to List of Candidates.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—Many reservations of rooms at hotels already have been made by those preparing to participate in the Republican state convention next Tuesday. State Chairman Sims will call the convention to order. The Rev. W. D. Parr of Kokomo will pronounce the invocation. James E. Watson will then be introduced as the temporary chairman and will make the keynote speech. Monday night the district meetings will be held, at which each district will elect members of the various convention committees and other officials.

Thomas T. Moore, former state senator, of Greencastle, is prominently mentioned for the nomination for lieutenant governor. Edward W. Wickey of Indiana Harbor is the other candidate for this nomination. Samuel C.
Ferrell of Fort Wayne has announced himself as a candidate for superintendent of public instruction. He was the nominee for that office two years ago. J. L. Peetz, former state statistician, has announced that he will be a candidate for that office. He was on the ticket two years ago for the same place.

For treasurer of state three names are announced. They are Ed Reynolds of Crawfordsville; Job Freeman of Terre Haute, and Jonce Monahan of Orleans. Monahan was the nominee two years ago. Friends of J. W.
Sale of Bluffton are urging him as a candidate for the nomination for secretary of state, and Otis E. Gulley of Danville also is talked of for this place. Gulley was the nominee two years ago. Charles Haller of Huntington is announced as a candidate for the nomination for reporter of the supreme court. Two names are mentioned for attorney general. One is that of Will H. Thompson of this city, and the other is F. H. Wurzer of South Bend. Mr. Thompson was deputy attorney general under James Bingham.
Mayor Will Oliver of Franklin is mentioned for the nomination for auditor of state, and his friends are urging his selection. There have been no additions to the list of candidates for the gubernatorial nomination publised several days ago. These aspirants are David W. Henry, Terre Haute; W.
W. Parsons, Terre Haute; W. T. Durbin, Anderson; Lew Shank, Indianapolis; George B. Lockwood, Marion; Walter Olds, Fort Wayne; Charles Arthur Carlisle, South Bend; James Wade Emison, Vincennes; Addison C.
Harris, Indianapolis; L. C. Embree, Princeton.

MILITARY SHOW

Will Be One of the Attractive Features at State Fair.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—The Twenty-third United States Infantry of Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, known as the "show" regiment of the American army, has accepted an invitation to give exhibition drills at the Indiana state fair, and will appear at the exposition on the afternoon and evening of Labor Day, Sept. 2, and on the evening of Thursday, Sept. 5. The regiment will on Labor Day bivouac on the infield of the racetrack and will give an exhibition drill on the track before the grandstand. In the evening the regiment will march in the arena of the coliseum and during the horse show one of the regiment's battalions will give a musical drill, supported by the regimental band. On Thursday evening the musical drill will be repeated.

Several months ago President Taft tentatively accepted an invitation to attend the Indiana fair on Labor Day, and the state board of agriculture is now pressing the invitation upon him and is hopeful that Mr. Taft will accept. A delegation of 1,000 merchants and manufacturers is being organized through three Indianapolis business organizations to visit the fair on the afternoon and evening of Labor Day.

Bader Again Paroled.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—Acting on recommendation from the state board of pardons, Governor Marshall has granted a temporary parole to Clinton L.
Bader, who has been serving a sentence in the state prison for presenting a false claim for bridge work to a board of county commissioners. The cause of the recommendation and parole was the serious illness of Mrs.
Bader at her home in Winamac.

Prepared to Blow It Up.

Bedford, Ind., Aug. 3.—Twelve sticks of dynamite were found under the "dry beer parlor" of Tony Rock at Oolitic. The resort has been the scene of many disturbances, and as the result of a recent shooting scrape in the place, when Fred and Lloyd Glimpse, brothers, and Rock himself were wounded.

NORMAN SELBY

American Pugilist Who Got Into Jail Over in London.

London, Aug. 3.—Norman Selby, known as Kid McCoy, who has been locked up in London for a week, charged with being implicated in a great jewel robbery at Ostend, claims he is a victim of a conspiracy and the Scotland Yard detectives say they do not believe he is guilty. McCoy has just been released on a cash bond of $15,000 furnished by himself and a friend.

RECEIVES REWARD AFTER MANY YEARS

Miss Drain Wins Out In Mc- Murrin Will Contest.

Petersburg, Ind., Aug. 3.—To reach an agreement in the Marshall McMur-ran will case, venue here from Vanderburg county, it took the jury only one hour. It took ten days to try the case and 100 witnesses were examined.

The jury found for the defendant, Miss Maggie Drain, in whose favor the will was drawn. Forty thousand dollars was at stake, and the heirs did everything in their power to have the will set aside. It was made twenty-four years ago, at a time when McMur-ran was away from home, called at a farmhouse near Vincennes and asked for something to eat.

Miss Maggie Drain, against the protest of her employer, gave the man a cup of coffee and his breakfast. Going to the home of a neighbor, he wrote the will on a piece of wrapping paper, had witnesses sign it and returned the paper to Miss Drain and told her to keep it, that some day it would prove valuable. McMurrin died in the southern Indiana insane hospital two years ago, and the heirs at once instituted proceedings to have the will set aside.
The case was tried in Posey county, the jury disagreed and the case was filed again in Vanderburg county and venued here.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

A "Progressive" state convention is being held in Chicago today to determine a third state ticket for Illinois.

Fire destroyed the packing section of the Montreal abattoirs, limited, creating a loss estimated at $200,000.

Two dynamite bombs were exploded in the market of Kotschana, Macedonia, killing and wounding some forty persons.

Jack McDermott, the Atlantic City professional, has just won the open golf championship of the United States.

Mrs. James Mitchell of New York was robbed of a jewel case containing $12,000 worth of jewelry while traveling through Switzerland.

A resolution authorizing the appropriation of $100,000 to transport American refugees from Mexico to points in the United States where they may want to locate, has been passed by the senate.

That a labor system amounting to peonage now prevails in the rubber districts of the Peruvian Amazon is the substance of a report received at the state department from Stewart Fuller, United States consul at Iquitos.

While soldiers were hauling an eight-inch gun into place at the Alpine fort of Bestries, the ropes broke and the gun was hurled down a hundred feet embankment into the valley, carrying twenty soldiers with it.

JAMES WADE EMISON

Aspirant For Republican Gubernatorial Nomination.

MRS. GRACE LEAVES COURT FREE WOMAN

Jury Acquits Her of Charge of Shooting Husband.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 3.—When the jury at 4:40 yesterday afternoon found her not guilty of the charge of shooting her husband, Mrs. Daisy Ulrich Ople Grace cried: "God bless you, gentlemen." Then the crowd in court cheered the verdict and surged about Mrs. Grace, many of the women weeping.

Followed by a cheering throng, Mrs.
Grace soon left the courtroom and went to the offices of her attorneys. She intends to return to her old home in Philadelphia just as soon as she arranges some business here.

The verdict was generally expected.
It was conceded that the state failed to sustain the charge that Mrs. Grace had drugged and shot her husband and locked him in to die in order to get $25,000 insurance on his life.

Mrs. Grace's testimony had a tremendous effect on the jury, and its main statements were generally credited, especially those relating to the large sums she had lavished on Grace and his attentions to other women.

Eugene Grace was not in court. At his home in Newman he heard of the verdict. "I don't care what the jury said," declared the paralyzed husband,
"she's guilty as hell, and she knows it."
Grace announced that he will make a statement about the case and at once sue for divorce.

State Guard Will Shoot.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—Brigadier General George W. McCoy, adjutant general of the Indiana national guard, has announced the annual state regimental shoot will be held at Fort Benjamin Harrison Aug. 19-27. The shoot will be between teams from the various guard companies of the state.

Socialist Kills Priest.

Brussels, Aug. 3.—M. Fleuret, an aged abbe, is dead from a wound inflicted by a Socialist. The abbe was sitting in a park reading his breviary when a Socialist stabbed him, at the same time shouting, "Hurrah for the social revolution."

THE NATIONAL GAME

Contests in the Three Big Leagues Noted Here at a Glance.

National League.

At Boston— R.H.E.
Pittsburgh... 0 0 0 0 0 3 0—3 12 0
Boston... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 8 1
Warner and Gibson; Dickson, Donnelly and Rariden.

At Philadelphia— R.H.E.
St. Louis... 0 0 0 0 2 1 0 2—5 11 1
Philadelphia... 0 0 0 0 1 1 1 0—3 9 0
Harmon and Wingo; Seaton, Schultz and Kilmer.

At New York— R.H.E.
Cincinnati... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 5 1
New York... 0 2 0 1 1 0 0 0—4 8 0
Benton and Clarke; Tesreau and Meyers.

At Brooklyn— R.H.E.
Chicago... 1 1 0 0 1 0 0 0—3 5 2
Brooklyn... 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0—2 6 1
Lavender and Archer; Ragon and Miller.

American League.

At Detroit— R.H.E.
Washington... 0 0 1 0 0 2 0 0—4 8 1
Detroit... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 7 0
Johnson and Almsmith; Willett and Stanage.

At St. Louis— R.H.E.
Boston... 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 1—0 9 12 3
St. Louis... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 3 1
Wood and Cady; Hamilton and Kritchell, Powell and Small.

At Chicago— R.H.E.
New York... 0 1 1 0 0 0 0 1—3 7 2
Chicago... 4 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—5 7 1
Warhop and Williams; Lange, Walsh and Block.

American Association.

At Louisville, 2; Kansas City, 9.
At Columbus, 1; Milwaukee, 7.
At Toledo, 0; Minneapolis, 4.
At Indianapolis, 0; St. Paul, 7.

POLITICAL EYES NOW ON CHICAGO

Keen Interest Taken In the Roosevelt Convention.

ONE BASIS OF CALCULATION

Only One Incident in Recent History Which Affords a Comparative Point on Which to Base an Estimate of the Probable Outcome of the Third Party Movement, and That Is the Weaver Campaign of 1892.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—The Roosevelt third party national convention to be held in this city next week is now attracting all political eyes in the nation.
Statesmen of other climes and countries and publicists generally have manifested keen interest in the effort to establish a new political party in the United States. It would be extremely hazardous at this time to venture an opinion as to the success or failure of the Roosevelt third party movement. The Taft people believe it and predict only an ephemeral bearing on the Republican national situation and hereafter. The enthusiastic and bitterly determined Roosevelt adherents insist that within forty days after the Roosevelt third party is established the presidential race will be between Roosevelt, the candidate of this convention, and Governor Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic aspirant, and that President Taft will be a poor third on election night, Nov. 5.

The supporters of President Taft predict and friends of Governor Wilson assert, that the results of this Roosevelt convention will resemble the ripple on the political waters faintly observed in the national campaign of 1896, when Palmer and Buckner were the gold Democratic standard bearers and got in all the country but 135,000 votes. Such predictions and assertions cannot represent the real sentiments of the Taft or Wilson national campaigners. At the moment there is but one basis of calculation on which the Roosevelt movement can be estimated. It is the vote which General James B. Weaver of Iowa received in the campaign of 1892 as the candidate of the Populist party for president. In that campaign General Weaver received 1,041,028 votes in the county and 22 votes in the electoral college.

Comparison of the Vote.

General Weaver's vote in the electoral college that year did not affect the result. The total vote in the college was 444, of which Cleveland received 277, Harrison 145 and Weaver 22. It requires a majority of the electoral college to elect a president. The majority of the college in 1892 was 223. The electoral college for 1912 numbers 631 electoral votes, of which 266 will be necessary to elect either Taft, Wilson or Roosevelt.

Disinterested observers of the Roosevelt third party movement, in an effort to arrive at a conclusion, aver that they cannot forget that in the twelve Republican states in which presidential primaries are established by law, the total vote cast against Mr.
Taft was 1,512,639, and the vote cast for Mr. Taft was 758,117. These states combined have 130 electoral votes. In 1908 President Taft had 321 electoral votes. The loss of sixty-six votes would have beat him for the presidency. Of the primary states the Democrats in 1910 carried: Ohio, 24 votes;
New Jersey, 14; Massachusetts, 18;
North Dakota, 5; Oregon, 5; total, 64 electoral votes. The loss of these five states alone would beat Mr. Taft for the presidency.

The Roosevelt campaigners on the ground, Senator Dixon, George W. Perkins, Albert J. Beveridge and others, declare that without the slightest doubt Roosevelt will prove on election night to be three times stronger than General Weaver was in 1892. In that event Roosevelt would get sixty-six votes in the electoral college. Inasmuch as there are 531 votes in the college this year that would leave to be divided between Taft and Wilson 465 votes, and inasmuch as the successful candidate must get 266 votes, neither Taft nor Wilson might have the necessary majority and the election might be thrown into the house of representatives. Mr. Perkins is here, there and everywhere. He believes Roosevelt will be elected in November and that plenty of money will be raised to finance the campaign.

Tickets for the Roosevelt convention are on sale at all the hotels and theaters. These tickets, which are for the three days' convention in the Coliseum and were $10, $15 and $20, have been marked down to $3 to close out before the performance starts. The price slashing, according to the Roosevelt managers, is not done to stimulate sale in the pastebars on a stagnant market, but because they have sold so well at the extraordinary high prices that the party has "all the money it needs."

White Plague Day, Oct. 27.

Washington, Aug. 3.—The National Association for the Study of Tuberculosis has named Oct. 27 as the day for a national demonstration against the white plague. On that date churches and religious societies will be asked to give special attention to tuberculosis in their services.

6% Tax Exempt Securities 6%

High Grade. Only a Few Left

Rush County Gravel Road Bonds, School Bonds, Bank Stocks and Trust Co. Stocks

Bought and Sold at Market Price Every Day

I can help you with your HIGH TAXES:

Home Phone A. C. BROWN Office Phone 1296 1637
Office in New Bank Building, Over Aldridge's Grocery

FIRE and TORNADO INSURANCE

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE
FIDELITY AND SURETY BONDS
BURGLARY INSURANCE

GEORGE W. OSBORNE

805 Main St. Telephone 1236

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY!

During the trying hours it is a consolation to know, if you have good security you can get what money you need at a reasonable rate of interest.

THE READLE CHATTLE MORTGAGE LOAN COMPANY
Over Farmers Trust Co.

OUR AUTO SPECIALISTS are always at your service when your car needs any attention, much or little. They diagnose the damage instantly and accurately and those who know will testify that their treatment is always efficacious and thorough. Keep our address handy.

WILLIAM E. BOWEN
Phone 1364.

CHURCH NEWS

—Little Flat Rock Christian church—Services each Lord's day at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Preaching by the pastor, the Rev. Talmage De-frees at every service unless otherwise announced. Bible school at 10 a. m. and Young Peoples meeting at 6:30 p. m.

—Regular services at St. Mary's Catholic church, conducted by the Rev. M. J. Lyons. Masses at 7:30 and 9:30 a. m.

—There will be preaching every other Sunday at the Glenwood M. E. church. Morning service at 10:30 o'clock, evening services at 7 o'clock and Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock.

—First Church of Christ, Scientist, will have their usual meeting at their room over the Farmers Trust Company.

—The Salvation Army—Holiness meeting Sunday morning at 10:30; Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.; Young Peoples meeting at 6:30 p. m.; Hal-lelujah wind up for the day at 7:30. Tuesday night salvation meeting at 7:30; Wednesday night, open air meeting; Thursday night, salvation meeting at 7:30 o'clock. Saturday night and afternoon open air meetings. All indoor meetings are held at their hall in South Pearl street.

—Regular services will be held at the Main Street Christian church Sunday as usual, with the exception of the evening services on account of the chautauqua.

—Usual services at the United Presbyterian church Sabbath morning by the pastor, the Rev. A. W. Jamieson, D. D. Sabbath school and Men's Bible class at 9:30 a. m.; Young Peoples Meeting at 6:30 p. m. No preaching services at night on account of chautauqua. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30 p. m. Lesson, Acts 22d chapter.

—The Rev. T. C. Smith of Seymour will preach at the First Baptist church Sunday morning.

—There will be no Young Peoples meeting at the United Presbyterian church August 4 or 11 on account of chautauqua.

They Put an End to It

Charles Sable, 30 Cook St., Rochester, N. Y., says he recommends Foley Kidney Pills at every opportunity because they gave him prompt relief from a bad case of kidney trouble that had long bothered him. Such a recommendation, coming from Mr. Sable, is direct and convincing evidence of the great curative qualities of Foley Kidney Pills. F. B. Johnson & Co.

There never was a time when people appreciated the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy more than now. This is shown by the increase in sales and voluntary testimonials from persons who have been cured by it. If you or your children are troubled with a cough or cold give it a trial and become acquainted with its good qualities. For sale by All Dealers.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

COUNTY NEWS

Bennett's Crossing.

Mrs. Earl Winship returned Saturday from a week's visit with relatives at Plainfield.

Mrs. Will West and daughters, Thelma and Vera of Clarksburg are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mat West this week.

Mrs. Herb Newlin is visiting relatives at Indianapolis this week.

Tom Mosburg and family were Sunday guests of Chris Mosburg and wife at Andersonville.

Robert the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dice, who has been seriously ill is improving slowly.

Burney Huffman and wife were called to the home of Fred Kennedy, east of Rushville Wednesday evening on account of the serious illness of their little son.

Mrs. Will West and daughters, Thelma and Vera, and Miss Flora West were guests of Mrs. Harry York at supper Thursday evening.

Mrs. Charles Beebe is ill with a complication of diseases.

Albert Timberman of Laurel visited his daughter, Mrs. Frank Dice, part of this week.

Mrs. Lela Love, wife of Wiley Love, a farmer living near Covena, Ga., says: "I have taken Foley Kidney Pills and find them to be all you claim for them. They gave me almost instant relief when my kidneys were sluggish and inactive. I can cheerfully recommend them to all sufferers from kidney troubles." F. B. Johnson & Co.

Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Small were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Swain Sunday.

Miss Aletha Young visited friends here a few days last week.

Mrs. Adelaide Ingold, of Iowa, is visiting in this community for the first time since she left here forty-six years ago.

Several went to John Swain's Sunday afternoon to see Mrs. Flora Nelson of Hamilton, Ohio.

Hershel Folger of Carthage, was visiting here, Tuesday.

Charles Zike and family were visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Zike, Tuesday and Mrs. Charles Zike and baby were visiting Marshall Rigsbee and family Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Gunning and

When Buying Buy Only The Best

Costs no more but gives the best results.

H. L. Blomquist, Esdaile, Wis., says his wife considers Foley's Honey and Tar Compound the best cough cure on the market. "She has tried various kinds but Foley's gives the best results of all." F. B. Johnson & Co., druggists.

Mr. Gunning's mother were guests of Olsen Gunning and family Sunday. Their mother is at Oresen's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Swain, of near Reedville, were guests of Oliver Swain and family Sunday.

Helped to Keep Down Expenses

Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle, and feel that they saved me a big doctor's bill." F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists.

Union Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Working and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hall visited Mr. and Mrs. Ortis Working Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer and son Will and Mr. and Mrs. Will McMillin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Billings Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith and Misses Gladys Clifford and Dottie Frye visited relatives in Grenefield Sunday.

Miss Jeannette Clifford of Irvington is visiting George Billings and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hilligoss of Anderson visited John Logan and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Arnold are the proud parents of a fine baby girl.

Miss Ocie Kirkpatrick visited Miss Ione Piper Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Logan visited Alphonso Nelson and family Sunday evening.

Tom Ertle and family, Paul Dabenspeck and family, Willie Hinchman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hinchman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hinchman Sunday.

Messrs Homer Hall and Lowell Vickery and Miss Ethel visited Miss Sallie Logan Sunday evening.

Will McMilling, Mrs. Frank Logan and Mrs. Ross Logan visited in Indianapolis Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ortis Working and Mrs. Clem Hall visited Mrs. Bert Cohee Thursday.

Lloyd Nelson visited Chase Jarret Sunday.

Mrs. John Hall is improving.

Mrs. M. A. McLaughlin, 512 Jay St., LaCross, Wis., writes that she suffered all kinds of pains in her back and hips on account of kidney trouble and rheumatism. "I got some Foley Kidney Pills and after taking them for a few days there was a wonderful change in my case, for the pain entirely left my back and hips and I am thankful there is such a medicine as Foley Kidney Pills." F. B. Johnson & Co.

Treating Chicken-Pox.

Chicken-pox can be successfully treated by anointing the head and warts with carbolated vasoline, after having first bathed well with hot water. A one-grain quinine pill should also be given each night for a week.

Frightened Hen.

The hen that fees when you enter the yard or run has you "spotted" as a disturbing element. Change your attitude and you will at once change hers for the better.

Improving the Flock.

The welfare of the flock is in no way improved by irregular and indifferent breeding. Regularity is to the liking of the business hen as well as of the business man.

Failures are Common.

The failures in poultry culture are no more common than in other commercial activities, and are usually traceable to a want of proper knowledge of its requirements.

It would surprise you to know of the great good that is being done by Chamberlain's Tablets, Darms Downey, of Newburg Junction, N. B., writes, "My wife has been using Chamberlain's Tablets and finds them very effectual and doing her lots of good." If you have any trouble with your stomach or bowels give them a trial. For sale by All Dealers.

When tired of meat, try Fresh Fish at Madden's Restaurant. 12½¢ per pound. 108426

PROPOSES TO PUT IT UP TO E. M. LEE

Alexander Shane of Columbus, Who Was Asked to be Chairman, to Write Letter.

WHAT DOES MR. LEE WANT?

He and Beveridge Are Too Big a Dose For Many People to Swallow.

Alexander Shane, who was asked by Edwin M. Lee, state chairman of the Roosevelt progressives, to be chairman of the progressives in Bartholomew county, is planning to smoke out the aforesaid Mr. Lee and make him tell just where he stands and why he stands there, says the Columbus Republican.

Lee importuned Mr. Shane to be county chairman, but the traction man declined the chairmanship. Mr. Shane says he is a progressive but he does not like to be an Ed Lee progressive, with Lee dictating the policy of the new party and running the machine both early and late. Following his refusal to act as county chairman, Mr. Shane received another letter from Lee in which the latter seemed to take it for granted that Mr. Shane was on the job here and urging him to get busy with the work of organization. Mr. Shane now has another letter from Lee in which the latter says he hopes the traction man will line up with the progressives when the state convention is held. Nothing more is said about the county chairmanship, because William H. Newsum of Sand-creek township, has been named provisional county chairman.

Mr. Shane is going to write a letter to Lee and in the letter he is going to say that if Lee will come out and make a public statement that he is not seeking any political office or appointment; that he is not looking for political preferment; that he is not taking the lead in the progressive cause because he is sore at President Taft; that he is not actuated by any motives of revenge and that he is interested in the third party movement solely because he believes in the principles of the movement and not until then, will he be able to muster any considerable support to his standard.

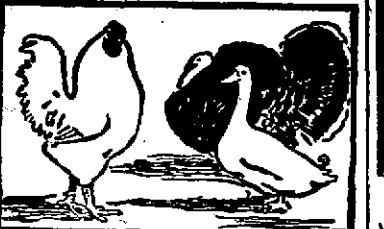

People here who are inclined to join with the Roosevelt forces have found Ed Lee and Albert J. Beveridge too big a dose to take. They have read the newspaper pretty carefully and they have noticed that the Lee and Beveridge forces have had considerable to say about the bosses. They do not know whether the statements made are true or not but they do know that it is poor policy for the pot to remark on the complexion of the kettle. If they know anything about the political game they know that there never was a greater boss in the State of Indiana than Albert J. Beveridge. Two years ago nearly every set of resolutions that any sort of a republican convention adopted in Indiana bore the O. K. of Beveridge. In the Fourth district the resolutions came direct from Beveridge's office, it is said, they were adopted just as he or his lieutenants had written them.

The same was true in other meetings in the district and in county meetings as well. Beveridge bossed the whole ranch and gave orders like a king. Everybody bowed down and did his bidding or else got cussed for being a renegade. At that time Beveridge was talking about Mary in the vine clad cottage. He was telling husbands to go home and ask their wives how to vote. He was begging the people to vote for the interests of their fire places, grates, hot plates and other kind of fire sides. All the time he was begging for a chance to let the people rule he was the big boss, the little boss and all the intermediate side bosses. The Republican organization let him play out his string and do just as he pleased. It allowed him to order workers around as if he was a ditch boss and they were hired by the day. After the votes were counted it was found that the people took so kindly to Mary of the vine clad cottage that they thought Beveridge should retire from public life and go there to live.

Beveridge was a popular man in Indiana and, viewed from the outside, his battle was always for the people and against the wrongs that menace the country. He nearly always voted the way the majority of the people of Indiana wanted him to vote. He got by with his professed love for the "peepul" for quite awhile, but in the end he stumbled and fell. He was a good man and is yet, but he is made of the same kind of clay from which other politicians are fashioned, and it causes Bartholomew county Republicans to smile when they read of Beveridge being one of the meek and lowly. Those who knew him knew he was a boss and there is little likelihood that his disposition has changed now.

POULTRY

FEEDS FOR EGG PRODUCTION

Farmer Should Be Able to Supplement Natural Resources of the Farm to Increase Revenue.

(By J. S. JEFFERY.)

The production of eggs for market is generally considered the most profitable branch of poultry keeping.

Under proper conditions there is no reason why eggs should not be produced at a price that will allow a good margin of profit. This should be especially true of eggs produced on farms where the fowls may find a large part of their sustenance at no cost to the farmer, utilizing what would otherwise be waste products.

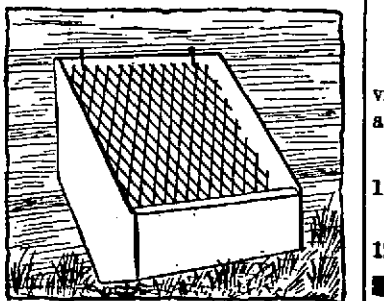

With a knowledge of what is necessary for the best results in egg production, the farmer should be able to supplement the natural resources of the farm in such a way that revenue from the hens would be largely increased by a small extra outlay for food.

Home-Made Box for Feeding Dry Mash

It has been demonstrated that fowls do better where they have part of their ration of grains, either whole or cracked, and part of it of ground products or what is commonly called a mash. Until within the last few years, it has been the custom to feed this mash wet. This necessitated the mixing of the mash fresh for each feeding and required a great deal of extra work in mixing and feeding. On this account the farmer has never taken to the feeding of mash. With the introduction of the feeding of this part of the ration dry, from hoppers or feed boxes, the objection to it has been largely done away with, and it can now be fed with less labor than can grain. Enough mash can be mixed and put in the feed boxes to last for a week or ten days with no more work than was necessary for the feeding of the day's ration under the old method. Not only is there this great saving in labor, but it has been shown that hens return a greater profit on the dry-mash-hopper feeding system than on the wet mash, without taking into account the labor in either case.

Galvanized Iron Box for Dry Mash.

A home-made box for feeding dry mash serves the purpose very well. It may be improved by putting the slats on the inside of the front and having a wire screen to cover the front at night to keep out rats.

A good style of galvanized feed box is covered by a grating of expanded metal. The hens get their food through this grating and are thus prevented from pulling a part of the mash out of the hopper in their search for the ingredients they like best. By hooking the lower end of the grating up at night, the hopper is made rat-proof.

Sell Drinking Vessels.

If many chicks are raised it is a good plan to keep a large kettle near the poultry house in which the drinking vessels can be boiled at least once a week. A handful of common soda thrown in the water will help.

5%
I Am Making Loans
On Best of Terms
B.F. MILLER

Traction Company
March 24, 1912

AT RUSHVILLE		PASSENGER SERVICE
West Bound	East Bound	West Bound	East Bound
15 20	15 55	15 55	16 20
16 20	16 55	16 55	17 20
17 20	17 55	17 55	18 20
18 20	18 55	18 55	19 20
19 20	19 55	19 55	20 20
20 20	20 55	20 55	21 20
21 20	21 55	21 55	22 20
22 20	22 55	22 55	23 20
23 20	23 55	23 55	24 20
24 20	24 55	24 55	25 20
25 20	25 55	25 55	26 20
26 20	26 55	26 55	27 20
27 20	27 55	27 55	28 20
28 20	28 55	28 55	29 20
29 20	29 55	29 55	30 20
30 20	30 55	30 55	31 20
31 20	31 55	31 55	32 20
32 20	32 55	32 55	33 20
33 20	33 55	33 55	34 20
34 20	34 55	34 55	35 20
35 20	35 55	35 55	36 20
36 20	36 55	36 55	37 20
37 20	37 55	37 55	38 20
38 20	38 55	38 55	39 20
39 20	39 55	39 55	40 20
40 20	40 55	40 55	41 20
41 20	41 55	41 55	42 20
42 20	42 55	42 55	43 20
43 20	43 55	43 55	44 20
44 20	44 55	44 55	45 20
45 20	45 55	45 55	46 20
46 20	46 55	46 55	47 20
47 20	47 55	47 55	48 20
48 20	48 55	48 55	49 20
49 20	49 55	49 55	50 20
50 20	50 55	50 55	51 20
51 20	51 55	51 55	52 20
52 20	52 55	52 55	53 20
53 20	53 55	53 55	54 20
54 20	54 55	54 55	55 20
55 20	55 55	55 55	56 20
56 20	56 55	56 55	57 20
57 20	57 55	57 55	58 20
58 20	58 55	58 55	59 20
59 20	59 55	59 55	60 20
60 20	60 55	60 55	61 20
61 20	61 55	61 55	62 20
62 20	62 55	62 55	63 20
63 20	63 55	63 55	64 20
64 20	64 55	64 55	65 20
65 20	65 55	65 55	66 20
66 20	66 55	66 55	67 20
67 20	67 55	67 55	68 20
68 20	68 55	68 55	69 20
69 20	69 55	69 55	70 20
70 20	70 55	70 55	71 20
71 20	71 55	71 55	72 20
72 20	72 55	72 55	73 20
73 20	73 55	73 55	74 20
74 20	74 55	74 55	75 20
75 20	75 55	75 55	76 20
76 20	76 55	76 55	77 20
77 20	77 55	77 55	78 20
78 20	78 55	78 55	79 20
79 20	79 55	79 55	80 20
80 20	80 55	80 55	81 20
81 20	81 55	81 55	82 20
82 20	82 55	82 55	83 20
83 20	83 55	83 55	84 20
84 20	84 55	84 55	85 20
85 20	85 55	85 55	86 20
86 20	86 55	86 55	87 20
87 20	87 55	87 55	88 20
88 20	88 55	88 55	89 20
89 20	89 55	89 55	90 20
90 20	90 55	90 55	91 20
91 20	91 55	91 55	92 20
92 20	92 55	92 55	93 20
93 20	93 55	93 55	94 20
94 20	94 55	94 55	95 20
95 20	95 55	95 55	96 20
96 20	96 55	96 55	97 20
97 20	97 55	97 55	98 20
98 20	98 55	98 55	99 20
99 20	99 55	99 55	100 20

Light face, A.M. Dark face, P.M.
*Limited. *Connersville Dispatch.
Starts from Rushville.
Additional Trains Arrive:
From East, 6:00; 11:57.
From West, 9:30
Express for delivery at stations carried on all passenger trains during the day.
The Adams Express Co. operates over our lines.
FRESH SERVICE
West Bound, Lv. 9:40 am ex. Sunday
East Bound, Lv. 5:45 am ex. Sunday

WM. FLANNAGAN, AUCTIONEER.

Assisted by Miner Conner. Farm sales and good stock a specialty.
Call or write for sale dates at our expense.

CONNERSVILLE, INDIANA

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

VACATION TIME IS HERE

The problem of where to get a little money to tide you over is worrying you. If so, your problem is solved. Come to us and we will loan you from $5 to $100 on your Furniture, Piano, Team, Fixtures, etc., without removal, and only want a reasonable amount of security to cover our investment. We give you from one to twelve months to pay it back. You can pay weekly, monthly or quarterly anyway to suit your income. It will cost you nothing to have us call and explain rates to you.

If in need of money, fill out this blank and mail it to us.

Your Name .....

Address .....

Richmond Loan Co.Colonial Building, Room 2 Richmond, Ind.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

DR. J. B. KINSINGER

6%

4%

We Can

Act as Trustee.
Act as Assignee.
Act as Executor.
Act as Guardian.
Act as Administrator.
Act as Receiver.
Write Your Surety Bond.
Furnish You Anything in Mortgages or Other Securities

We Issue Traveler's Checks.
We Invite Your Checking Account.
We Can Serve You in Many Other Ways.
WE PAY 4% ON TIME CERTIFICATES.

Farmers Trust Co.

3%

2%

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN

Published Daily except Sunday by The Daily Republican Office in Republican Building, Northwest Corner Second and Perkins Streets.

Entered as second-class matter March 22, 1904, at the postoffice at Rushville, Indiana, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

One week, delivered by carrier.....10
One year in the city by carrier.....$6.00
One year delivered by mail.....$5.00

J. F. WATSON, Editor.
W. T. JACKSON, News Editor. ALLEN C. KENNER, City Editor.

TELEPHONE NUMBER, 1111.

Saturday, August 3, 1912.

Abolish Sectionalism.

"The kind of sectionalism that was especially hurtful to the South," says Col. Watterson, "ended quite a while ago. Grant began the beginning of the end when he removed the troops in 1877. Cleveland continued it when he put a few rebel brigadiers in the diplomatic service and called a few more to his cabinet. McKinley laid the ax to the end when he signed the commissions of Joseph Wheeler and Fitzhugh Lee in the regular army. And Taft quite finished the job when he made a Confederate soldier chief justice of the United States." Col. Watterson says this as a response to Col. Roosevelt's insinuation that the Progressives, under his leadership, are going to do away with sectionalism.

There is sense in what the Kentucky colonel says, comments the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. In its old proscription aspect sectionalism was ended long ago. It was Hayes, and not Grant, who removed the troops from South Carolina and Louisiana in 1877, but this is a mere error in detail which does not mar the truth of what Mr. Watterson says. But it was Grant who began the removing of the ban on ex-Confederates. Shortly after he entered office he appointed Longstreet to be surveyor of customs in New Orleans, and that was only four years after the close of the war. A year later, in 1870, he made Amos T. Ackerman, another former Confederate soldier, attorney general. He gave federal posts to several other wearers of the gray, including Mosby. Hayes continued the work of bridging the bloody chasm by removing the federal troops from the South, and by making Key, a Democrat as well as a former Confederate, a member of his cabinet. Arthur refused to mention the South in any of his messages as a distinct section. These were among the attempts of the earlier Republican presidents to abolish the geographical line in politics.

A still earlier piece of work in that direction was done by Grant several years before he became president. Lee said the terms of surrender which Grant offered him at Appomattox would have a favorable effect on all the Confederates, and Lee was a man who usually meant what he said, and who never gave tributes gratuitously. The number of former wearers of the gray who were appointed to government offices by Republican presidents would fill a large space in a newspaper column. Congress is about to make an appropriation to pay the expense of the ex-Confederates as well as the ex-Federals who attend the reunion at Gettysburg next July, the fiftieth anniversary of the battle. Several Southern men figured in the Baltimore convention as aspirants for the presidency, one of them carried off the candidacy, and the fact of his Southern birth has not been urged against him by any Republican newspaper, and will not be. The Kentucky colonel is correct in telling the New York colonel, in effect, that the events of 1861-65 have been sponged off the state.

Perkins Says So.

"This is the right movement," said Mr. Perkins, "and it is the movement which the people want and will support at the polls. The movement has ample funds and will continue to have ample funds as long as it is directed in the high spirit which has prevailed thus far. I am extremely hopeful of Colonel Roosevelt's election in November."—Chicago dispatch.

So Mr. Perkins says the Bull Moose party has ample funds, and Mr. Perkins ought to know, being a former partner of J. P. Morgan, director of the International Harvester trust and the steel trust and interested in other financial organizations which have felt the sting of President Taft's anti-trust crusade.

At one time there was said to be some doubt whether Roosevelt could call enough men of Mr. Perkins' ilk to his support so that the Bull Moose party would be sufficiently financed, but this has all been removed according to Perkins' statement. The tickets to the big show, the Bull Moose national convention, were first listed at a range of ten to twenty dollars, but the seat sale didn't go big, and besides Mr. Perkins says the third party has ample funds, so the price of tickets has been lowered to three dollars for any seat in the house to close them out.

And with all this, the acknowledged support of such men as George W. Perkins, our friends, the Bull Moose, the so called enemy of Big Business and clamorers for the rule of the people, swallow the whole thing without so much as making a

Sam Sanborn Says:

That the principal pleasure many people find in getting up social entertainments is the satisfaction of leaving some people out.

face. Evidently they like to be bunched. And with what great holy horror these so-called progressives would hold up their hands and shout if such a man would come to the aid of President Taft and make such statements as the above!

May Invade U. S.

Bubonic Plague, the "Black Death" of Medieval Europe, is threatening the United States. Our country is today confronted with a problem of momentous importance and one the very gravity of which should awaken the entire people to immediate action. Plague has manifested itself in Porto Rico and Cuba, two of the principal islands of the West Indies. The idea of bubonic plague ever ravaging the Mississippi Valley or sweeping the Atlantic seaboard, may be regarded by some persons as an absurd fancy. Notwithstanding popular opinion to the contrary, these sections of the United States will probably have to consider this problem in the near future. This is the opinion of Dr. Howard B. King of New Orleans, Instructor in Tropical Medicine in Tulane University. This is rather an alarming prophecy. Its fulfillment depends on the attitude which will be adopted by the health authorities of the threatened states and the extent to which the working forces of the national government will co-operate. Plague on the eastern coast of the United States is already a national health problem and not a sectional one. The situation in South America, Porto Rico and Cuba, and the possibility of the importation of either human beings or rats afflicted with the plague is by no means a pleasant one to contemplate. The Journal of the American Medical Association, in which Dr. King's article appears, considers the situation one of the utmost seriousness.

It says editorially, "It is time to face the situation soberly but with a full appreciation of what is in store for us. Our ports on the Gulf and Atlantic coast are to a considerable degree rat infested. If plague infected rats should be introduced into any of our coastal cities, it would be a difficult, and in the opinion of some, an impossible task to prevent the gradual extension of the disease in this country. Plague still exists on the Pacific coast. Sixteen infected ground squirrels have been found in California during one week in June. The opening of the Panama Canal will unquestionably increase the danger, while the possibility of such infection over the Mexican border cannot be overlooked. We do not wish to appear as alarmists, but we feel it desirable to recognize the situation as one of great gravity, worthy the earnest attention of national and state officials. The general public should be made definitely aware of the plague and should be urged to co-operate in the difficult, costly and tedious but absolutely necessary measures prevention. Thorough methods may prevent the plague from getting a foothold in the United States, and those responsible should be at once take up the necessary work."

It is true that it is the Woodrow Wilson of today that the people are to consider, but the problem is to find out just what he is today. According to the reasoning of the Sun we are to judge of this by what he has to say for himself today. We are to take his word for that, but this is a test neither the Sun nor any other intelligent newspaper, nor any intelligent person considers sufficient. And the thought of this is emphasized when the man becomes a candidate for a great office. The test ordinarily applied is to compare or contrast his pretensions of today with his past. If these agree, then it is fair to assume that the expressions of today indicate the real man.

On the contrary, if we find that he has veered from opinions that are unpopular to those that are supposed to be popular, it is just as reasonable to assume that consciously or unconsciously he is swayed by the ambition to catch votes and that, whatever his pretensions, he is no better than any other candidate, who wheedles the people to promote his own interests.

There are many thousands—yes, millions, of sincere people who do want to know what this man has said in the past and they want to know it for the very reason that only in this way may they determine what the man really is today. For instance, if a man denounced organized labor when he had no thought of becoming a candidate, very naturally they want something more than ephemeral expression of today to convince them that at heart he is a real friend of organized labor. And so it is with the numerous other things that this man is to consider.

On the other hand, if the people are to accept implicitly what a candidate has to say for himself today, and if this alone is to be the test or the measure of the man, then we shall have Taft and Roosevelt and Wilson and Debs and what's his name—all for president. Any candidate is ready to vouch for himself, just as any man is in every-day affairs of life.

The truth is that the position of the Sun is not only untenable, but unspeakably absurd, and yet it seems to be serious. There seems to have been some mighty hot weather in New York recently.

Fred Landis, defeated candidate for eleventh district congressman on the Republican ticket and one of the discredited politicians who are leading the Indiana Bull Mooseers, displayed his fine gentlemanly training in the State convention Thursday by ordering a poor innocent Indianapolis Newsboy ejected from the convention hall when he appeared with newspapers to sell. A gang of full-grown cowardly "parrots," fired by the command of their chieftain, pounced on the youngster, who was innocent of any wrong doing, and with concerted effort rushed him from the hall—but not until he had sold all of his papers.

Up to date the Indianapolis Star and the Indianapolis Sun have failed to publish an account of the public career of Fred Landis.

Editorialettes.

The Newcastle Courier suggests that Taft may have been reading a Bull Moose paper and didn't know he was nominated.

That county option splinter may have tough sledding with A. Jay Beveridge on it.

"Negro Has His Leg Cut Off By Train," says a Greensburg newspaper headline. Now if that poor negro's friend had just advised him, he could have come to Rushville and had it done with much less pain.

The price of golf balls has gone up. Don't let that worry you. As long as they keep tennis balls down we'll not kick.

Muncie beans are in the soup. Calvin Bean of Muncie has filed suit for a divorce from Kate Bean.

There are some fifty odd motoreycles in Rush county, we are told, and not one of them has hit us yet. (Stage business of knocking andibly on wood.)

Chicago police won't enforce the anti-hatpin ordinance. Evidently they know where the seat of authority lies nowadays.

BELL-KENNEDY REUNION.

The Bell-Kennedy family reunion will be held at the Rush county fair grounds Tuesday, August 13th, 1912. 117410

FOR SALE—a carriage, good as new. Will sell cheap if bought at once. B. W. Riley. 12346

K. K. K. Special

for cleaning white gloves and shoes. At Lytle's Drug Store. 1917

New Feature For The Chautauqua

BOY SCOUTS IN ACTION.

NOTICE TO MEAT PATRONS

Few people realize what it means to deliver goods to all parts of the city and still please every patron. An establishment must have some regularity or system about its delivery else dissatisfaction is sure to result. Since the size of Rushville has increased so materially and the meat markets especially have to deliver to all parts of the city, it is imperative that some hours for delivery be observed. Patrons should remember that they are not the only persons ordering but that others, too, must be accommodated in the same way they are. The Weeks Fresh Meat and Provision Company has strict rules about its delivery, and it asks that they be observed. The delivery wagon leaves on the hour, and orders from the distant parts of the city received after ten in the morning can not be delivered for dinner. Deliveries of orders close in received up until eleven will be made. Only one delivery is made in the afternoon, the wagon leaving at four o'clock. Orders received after that can not be delivered. 11945

Clairvoyant

Dr. J. S. C., a clairvoyant, will be found at 204 East Second street, on corner of Julian and Second streets. This wonderful man calls you by name without you speaking a word or no charges. Prices in reach of all. He gives his celebrated $5.00 reading for one dollar for a few days. If you are not perfectly satisfied it costs you nothing. 12143

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

Attention Sick People

Why use thrashy good for nothing patent medicines, that in time are bound to ruin your health and leave incurable troubles?

Why save your skin with a lot of worthless ointments that will simply destroy the smoothness and disfigure you for life?

USE WITTER WATER, nature's natural medicine, the most wonderful blood purifier. This water is pleasant to take and leaves no bad effects. Positively cures Eczema, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Jaundice, Kidney, Stomach, Liver and Blood troubles. Write for booklet at once telling how to use Witter Water.

Pay Telephone Toll

Don't overlook to pay your telephone toll before August 12 if you wish to avoid paying 15 cents extra for collection. No notice will be given by telephone.

12149 W. T. JACKSON, Sec'y.

DON'T JOURNEY, JUST TELEPHONE. SAVE YOURSELF LOTS OF TROUBLE. SIMPLY CALL US ON THE TELEPHONE. WE DELIVER QUICKLY. LYTLE'S DRUG STORE. REXALL. 11647

LOST—White scarf. Finder please return to Miss Bernice Anderson or call phone 3102. 12343

6% Dividends on Savings Building Association No. 10
Open Saturday from 8 to 8 p. m.
Office at Farmers Trust Co.

The Desire to Serve.

Must precede the will to do so. Our success has been built by our DESIRE to serve, followed by the will to do so. We believe that to succeed we must FIRST consider the interest of the other fellow. This is what we do when we make

"Clark's Purity Flour"

PROF. J. S. C.

CLAIRVOYANT

Has Parlors at 204 Julian and Second St.

THE ONLY REGISTERED CLAIRVOYANT, PSYCHIC AND PALMIST IN THE UNITED STATES.

Never before in the history of OCCULT SCIENCE has a medium of his high development and reputation visited our city. He calls you by name. Your life to him is like an open book.

Knowledge of the future is the power of the present. He tells you all concerning yourself and those you are interested in; tells you who your friends and enemies are, warns you of coming danger and accidents. He will furnish ways and means to escape all pending misfortunes and place you on the road to success and happiness.

He reunites the separated; causes speedy and happy marriage to the one of your choice. If the demon rum assails your home or there is cause for trouble or distress, call and see this gifted man and receive power and instruction that will bring about a speedy and permanent relief. Stop and think! This medium can read your future as though it were woven in the loom of the gods. He can point to you the threads that lead to blighted affection, or joy and peace. A little advice given, a little word spoken, may point the way, and life for you may be a charming paradise where husband, home and happiness will be an alliterative trinity upon which any trusting heart may rear a kingdom of love.

By this aid you can defy the elements, mock at fate and ignore destiny, court danger with impunity, scorn quarter, bend others to your will, draw friends near to you and realize all your fondest hopes that lie within the limit of human accomplishment.

Do not give up in despair if you have been deceived in the past—do not delay, whatever may be your desires, troubles or wants. If you are in doubt that he does all he claims, call and see him and be convinced. Prof. J. S. C. comes to your town highly recommended by press and public. Don't delay; call today. Business sacred and confidential.

HIS CELEBRATED $5 READINGS FOR $1

Prof. J. S. C. is the man who has located three hidden treasures within the past five months.

Always Have On Hand

Marigold Salve

In Case of Cuts, Burns, Boils, Piles, Scalds or Galls

It Draws and Heals

25c A Box 25c

Hargrove &amp; Mullin

THE OFFICERS

of this bank hold their time, their experience and their advice at the disposal of their customers.

Their efforts are directed toward the promotion of the financial welfare of clients for successful clients mean a prosperous bank.

You are invited to meet the officers of this bank and discuss with them the various ways in which they can be of service to you.

The Rush County National Bank

Rushville, Indiana

Capital $100,000 Surplus, $100,000 Resources, $700,000

L. LINK, President, W. E. HAVENS, Vice President
L. M. SEXTON, Cashier, V. R. SPURGEON, Asst. Cash.

PERSONAL POINTS

—Mrs. W. H. Wolcott visited in Indianapolis today.

—Mrs. Blaine Hunt was a visitor in Indianapolis today.

—George Campbell transacted business in Indianapolis today.

—Mrs. Henry Freese has gone to Ft. Wayne to visit Mrs. Mary Herbst.

—Miss Marion Wilson of Lexington, Ky., is the guest of friends and relatives here.

—Miss Gladys Reason has returned to her home in Greensburg after a visit here with relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kinnear will leave tomorrow for a week's visit with relatives in Fortville.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Black and daughters, the Misses Helen and Esther, will spend Sunday in Greensburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kidd and family of Brazil will come today for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. P. McCarty.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osman and family have returned from an outing taken at Grand Rapids, Mich., and Mackinac.

—The Misses Anna Stearns and Katherine Petry returned today from a visit with friends in Ohio and southern Indiana.

—Miss Florence Grever of Cincinnati and Miss Mary Baird of South Charleston, Ohio, have returned home after a visit with Miss Helen Black.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Simpson and daughter of Greenwood are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Griffith of North Jackson street and other relatives.

—Will Bebout left this morning for his home in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, after an extended visit here with relatives. Mrs. Bebout and daughter, who accompanied Mr. Bebout here on a visit, left today for an extended visit with relatives in Ohio.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

New Princess

W. F. Easley Owner and Mgr.

A No. 1 Program "The Railroad Engineer"

An Exciting Railroad Drama
(LUBIN)

"Rivals"

A Drama of the Beach and Mountains
(SELIG)

MONDAY

"The Senorita's Butterfly"
(LUBIN)

5c ADMISSION 5c

PORTOLA

SOME PLACE TO GO

"The Redemption of Ben Farland" (VITAGRAPH)

"Darby and John" (LUBIN) (Fine Drama)

"A Close Call" "Helen's Marriage" (BIOGRAPH) (Some Comedy)

SPECIAL MUSIC

"Coming of Columbus"
AUGUST 14

10c ADMISSION 10c

TIME FOR SPELL BINDING AT HAND

Open Season For Stump Orators of Political Kind is in Near Future.

INDIANA IS BATTLE GROUND

James E. Watson Will be Factor in Campaign Which Promises to be Warm.

According to newspaper dispatches that are being sent out of Washington and New York, Indiana is going to be the battle ground this fall and the State will be deluged with all sorts of oratory, the big guns from the spell-binding arsenals of both parties being drawn upon for Hoosier use.

The Taft people will send a number of their foremost men here to deliver addresses. James E. Watson, former congressman, will make a number of speeches in Indiana and it is also the purpose of the Taft management to send Watson throughout the country.

At the Chicago convention the Rushville man proved a big card and there have been many requests from other States for him. He is very much in demand and the fact that he has offered his services to the administration will insure a busy time for him.

The Roosevelt people will pay some attention to Indiana and it is possible that Mr. Roosevelt himself will come to this State and deliver several addresses.

The Democrats are not going to let anything get away in Indiana and they are planning at this time for a speaking tour of Wilson, Bryan, Kern and other notables. Mr. Kern will be used in the East, as it is announced but he will probably make a few speeches in his home State.

The Prohibitionists will also have a speaking campaign and some of the prominent men in that party will tour Indiana.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. F. M. Sparks had a small tumor removed this morning from his right thumb.

Catherine D. Gruell has filed a petition for partition in the circuit court against Harriet R. Foster and others.

Elmer Williams, representing Henry Murie of New York, filed suit in Squire Bishop's court in Carthage this morning against Ed Lewis, on an account demanding $45.

Oliver C. Brann is preparing to open a grocery store in his room in West Second street, formerly occupied by Mart Spivey. Mr. Brann plans to open one week from Monday.

The Pomeranian dog owned by Mrs. Anna B. Cox was killed last evening in front of the Bowen garage by being run over by the Fred Caldwell delivery truck. Dick Smith was driving the truck but was in no way responsible.

The committee in charge of the Catholic carnival held a final meeting last night and heard the report on the finances. A profit of $650 was reported, which is the most ever cleared on the carnival. The gross receipts for the week was $1250.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

SOCIETY NEWS

Mrs. F. S. Pond of Riverside, Cal., entertained the members of the J. O. C. class of the First Methodist church of that city, of which her daughter is a member, together with a few friends. The affair was to announce the engagement of Miss Blanche Pond and Dr. Chester L. Nelson, formerly of Riverside, now of Richmond, Cal. Mrs. Pond was formerly Miss Frankie E. Northern and is remembered by many people here. A Riverside paper adds the following:

When the guests entered the house they were each given the end of a cord which was wound over furniture and chandeliers until it ended in some out of the way corner of the house. On following up the clues, each of the guests found on the end of the cord two hearts tied together with ribbon.

When all the hearts had been gathered in, the girls read in order the legends written on the outside of the little souvenirs, and these told the life history of Miss Pond and Dr. Nelson. When the story was finished the hearts were untied and within were found kodak pictures of Miss Pond and her fiancé. Below the picture was written in each case "Soon." The date of the wedding, however, was not announced.

When the many felicitous wishes had been given the honor guest the company enjoyed a host of ingenious and amusing games after which a delicious collation was served. Decorations for the affair were simply developed in Shasta daisies.

Miss Pond is a charming girl, a popular member of the J. O. C. class and a favorite wherever she goes. She has lived in Riverside since childhood and is a graduate of the local grammar and high schools.

Dr. Nelson is a successful young veterinary surgeon, who formerly resided in this city. He was an active member in church and social circles while here. He has since removed to Richmond, Cal. and he and his bride will probably make their home in that city.

Dr. G. I. Inlow of Blue Ridge went to Indianapolis yesterday to visit his sister, Mrs. C. D. John, who is seriously ill in one of the hospitals with gall stones. Mrs. John lives near Manila and was taken to the hospital several days ago, hoping that she would soon get relief. She is little improved.

Don't fail to hear the orchestra from Philadelphia in front of Wagner and Poe's store tonight. 12311

FOR RENT—First class furnished rooms with board. Also stable to rent. Flora Gray, corner Fourth and Harrison. 12416

JUST RECEIVED ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF VERY FINE HONEY

20c PER CAKE

L. L. ALLEN, Grocer

Phone 1420

327-329, Main St

WE SELL KIRK'S FLAKE WHITE SOAP

There's a Whole Lot To Management

The management of a store or a business determines the policy of that store.

Our policy at all times is to give you the highest quality goods and utmost satisfaction.

For all your drug store wants, whatever they may be, depend upon us and you'll know no dissatisfaction.

Every usual and unusual drug or drug store article is here. We will do our best to serve you in a way that will be entirely satisfactory to you.

All the best baby foods are to be found at Lytle's Drug Store. Phone your order and your wants will be attended to promptly.

There is a Rexall Remedy to help you avoid most every human ill. Rexall goods are sold only at

Lytle's Drug Store

The Rexall Store

The Rexall Store

Buggies Buggies

On Time or For Cash

For the benefit of those who need Buggies, I will sell For the Next Thirty Days

on Time for one year Without Interest and they are all the best makes of Buggies and now is the time to get you one with a long time to pay for it.

Nothing Better on the Market

and this is no lie. I don't care a d—n who is elected—Ben McFarland or Lon Havens or Doc Gwinn or James Levi. James says he thinks he is the best qualified for the place.

But I will sell buggies all the same whether either of them is elected. Sam Young says this is no lie.

J. W. Tompkins

East First St.

Rushville, Ind.

First Showing OF New Fall Tailored Garments

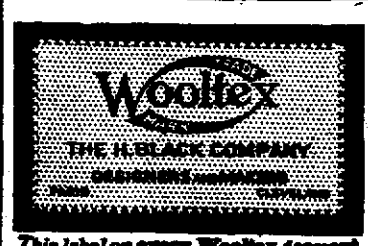

during Chautauqua week. This glimpse into the new fall styles is important to you—to every woman who cares to be posted on correct fashions. The styles are authoritative and not only fashionable, but becoming and sensible styles that are truly likable—that you won't tire of—will stay right as long as you wear them. Suits and coats alike will share your attention—NOT just a few garments but a complete display. For superior service be sure that your fall garment bears this label

This store offers its many conveniences to you during Chautauqua week—rest rooms, toilet rooms, and ice-cooled drinking water. We will gladly take care of your surplus packages and wraps.

The Corner Store.
The Daylight Store.

The Mauzy Co.

The Store that Sells Woollex.

RUSH COUNTY CHAUTAUQUA NINTH AUG. 4-11, '12 SESSION

Get tickets at $1.50 from the Guarantors. The Chautauqua Association has no tickets at less than $2.00. See list of guarantors.

Rich Men's Children

By Geraldine Bonner

Author of "The Pleaser"
"Tomorrow's Tangle," etc.

Illustrations by Don. J. Levin

Copyright 1932 by the Mobbe-Macmill Co.

"All right, father, I'll give it my best attention, and if there's anything especially good, I'll report to you. You and Rose might like to go some night."

His father, disappointed that his shaft had made no impression upon the young man's invulnerable amiability, emitted a scornful snort, and made no further response to Gene's cheery "Good night."

"There," he said, in tones expressing his relief, as the portiere dropped behind his son's departing figure, "he's gone! Now, Rosey, you and I can have a talk."

"Yes," said his daughter, looking at her coffee-cup, "that's what I wanted. I want to have a long talk with you tonight, papa."

"Fire away," said the old man. "I've had to listen to that fool for an hour, and it's broken my spirit. You can say anything you like."

"Not here," said his daughter; "in the sitting-room. I'll go in there and wait for you."

"Why not here? What's the matter with here? I like it better than the sitting-room. I'm more comfortable."

"No, the servants will want to clear the things away, and I don't want them to hear what I say."

"Tell the servants to go to hell," said the old man, who, relieved by Gene's departure, was becoming more cheerful.

"No, this is something—something serious. I'll go into the sitting-room and wait for you. When you've finished your coffee, come in."

She rose from her chair and walked to the door. He noticed that she was unusually unsmiling and it occurred to him that she had been so all through dinner.

"What is it, honey," he said, extending his hand toward her, "short on your allowance?"

"Oh, no, it's just—just something," she said, lifting the portiere. "Come when you're ready, I'll be there."

She walked up the hall to the sitting-room and there sat down in a low chair before the chimney-piece. The chill of the fog had penetrated the house and a fire had been kindled in the grate. On its quivering fluctuation of flame she fixed her eyes. With her hands pressed between her knees she sat immovable, thinking of what she was going to say, and so nervous that the blood sang in her ears and the palms of her hands, clasped tight together, were damp. She had never in her life shrunk so before an allotted task. It sickened her and she was determined to do it, to thrust it out to the end. When she heard her father's step in the passage her heart began to beat like a woman's waiting for her lover. She straightened herself and drew an inspiration from the bottom of her lungs to try to give herself breath wherewith to speak.

The old man flung himself into an arm-chair at one side of the fireplace, jerked a small table to his elbow, reached creakingly for an ash tray, and, having made himself comfortable, took his cigar from his mouth and said:

"Well, let's hear about this serious matter that's making you look like a tragedy queen."

"It is serious," she said slowly. "It's something that you won't like to hear about."

"Hit me with it," he said, wondering a little what it could be. "Gene's gone and a child could eat out of my hand now."

Looking into the fire, Rose said: "I was out walking this afternoon and down in the Union Street plaza a woman stopped me. I'd never seen her before. She was Mrs. Dominick Ryan."

The old man's face became a study. A certain whimsical tenderness that was generally in it when he spoke to his daughter vanished as if by magic. It was as if a light had gone out. He continued to look at her with something of blankness in his countenance, as if, for the first moment of shock, every faculty was held in suspense, waiting for the next words. He held his cigar, nipped between a pair of stumpy fingers, out away from him over the arm of the chair.

"Well," he said quietly, "and what had she to say to you?"

"The most disagreeable things I think any one ever said to me in my life. If they're true, they're just too dreadful—" she stopped, balking from the final disclosure.

"Suppose you tell me what they were?" he said with the same almost hushed quietness.

"She said that you and Mrs. Ryan were offering her money—a good deal of money, three hundred thousand dol-

ars was the amount, I think—to leave her husband so that he could get a divorce from her, and then—" she swallowed as if to swallow down this last unbearable indignity—"and then be free to marry me."

So Berny had told all. If deep, unspoken curses could have killed her, she would have died that moment.

"Is it true?" Rose asked.

"Well, yes," said the old man in a perfectly natural tone of dubious consideration, "it's a fairly accurate statement."

"Oh, papa," cried his daughter, "how could you have done it? How could you have done such a thing? Such a hateful, horrible thing?"

"Horrible thing?" he repeated with an air of almost naive astonishment. "What's horrible about it?"

"You know. I don't have to tell you; you know. Don't say to me that you don't think it's horrible. Don't make me feel as if we were suddenly thousands of miles apart."

The Bonanza King knew that in many matters, in most matters involving questions of ethics, they were more than thousands of miles apart than she even now suspected. That was one of the reasons why he would have liked to kill Berny, who, for the first time, had brought this dissimilarity in their points of view to his daughter's unwilling consideration. He spoke slowly and vaguely to gain time. He knew it was a critical moment in the relations between himself and the one creature in the world he loved.

"I don't want you to feel that way, dearie," he said easily. "Maybe there are things in this matter you don't know about or understand. And, anyway, what's there so horrible in trying to separate a man and woman who are unhappily married and can't bear the sight of each other?"

"You were separating them for me," she said in a low voice.

"Well, now," he answered with a slight rocking movement of his shoulders and a manner of almost bluff depreciation, "I can say that I wasn't, but suppose I was?"

She paid no attention to the last part of the sentence, and replied: "The woman said you were."

He did not answer for a minute, the truth being that he did not know what it was best to say, and wanted to wait and let her make statements that he could either contradict or seek to justify.

"What made you think I wanted to marry Dominick Ryan?" she said slowly, her eyes on the fire.

BACK GIVES OUT

Plenty of Rushville Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them—

They can't keep up the continual strain.

The back gives out—it aches and pains;

Urinary troubles set in.

Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

Rushville people tell you how they act.

Samuel A. Brown, 527 W. First St. Rushville, Ind., says: "I cannot speak too highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know from personal experience that they live up to the claims made for them. About three years ago I was suddenly taken with an attack of backache and it steadily grew worse. I could hardly raise my foot from the ground and if I stooped, it really seemed as if my back would break. When someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I did so and I was certainly surprised by their promptness in relieving me. In three days I was free from backache and felt better in every way. Since then I have procured Doan's Kidney Pills at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store and have seldom been without a supply in the house. Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy of the highest praise."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ing a little what it could be. "Gene's gone and a child could eat out of my hand now."

Looking into the fire, Rose said: "I was out walking this afternoon and down in the Union Street plaza a woman stopped me. I'd never seen her before. She was Mrs. Dominick Ryan."

The old man's face became a study. A certain whimsical tenderness that was generally in it when he spoke to his daughter vanished as if by magic. It was as if a light had gone out. He continued to look at her with something of blankness in his countenance, as if, for the first moment of shock, every faculty was held in suspense, waiting for the next words. He held his cigar, nipped between a pair of stumpy fingers, out away from him over the arm of the chair.

"Well," he said quietly, "and what had she to say to you?"

"The most disagreeable things I think any one ever said to me in my life. If they're true, they're just too dreadful—" she stopped, balking from the final disclosure.

"Suppose you tell me what they were?" he said with the same almost hushed quietness.

"She said that you and Mrs. Ryan were offering her money—a good deal of money, three hundred thousand dol-

ars was the amount, I think—to leave her husband so that he could get a divorce from her, and then—" she swallowed as if to swallow down this last unbearable indignity—"and then be free to marry me."

So Berny had told all. If deep, unspoken curses could have killed her, she would have died that moment.

"Is it true?" Rose asked.

"Well, yes," said the old man in a perfectly natural tone of dubious consideration, "it's a fairly accurate statement."

"Oh, papa," cried his daughter, "how could you have done it? How could you have done such a thing? Such a hateful, horrible thing?"

"Horrible thing?" he repeated with an air of almost naive astonishment. "What's horrible about it?"

"You know. I don't have to tell you; you know. Don't say to me that you don't think it's horrible. Don't make me feel as if we were suddenly thousands of miles apart."

The Bonanza King knew that in many matters, in most matters involving questions of ethics, they were more than thousands of miles apart than she even now suspected. That was one of the reasons why he would have liked to kill Berny, who, for the first time, had brought this dissimilarity in their points of view to his daughter's unwilling consideration. He spoke slowly and vaguely to gain time. He knew it was a critical moment in the relations between himself and the one creature in the world he loved.

"I don't want you to feel that way, dearie," he said easily. "Maybe there are things in this matter you don't know about or understand. And, anyway, what's there so horrible in trying to separate a man and woman who are unhappily married and can't bear the sight of each other?"

"You were separating them for me," she said in a low voice.

"Well, now," he answered with a slight rocking movement of his shoulders and a manner of almost bluff depreciation, "I can say that I wasn't, but suppose I was?"

She paid no attention to the last part of the sentence, and replied: "The woman said you were."

He did not answer for a minute, the truth being that he did not know what it was best to say, and wanted to wait and let her make statements that he could either contradict or seek to justify.

"What made you think I wanted to marry Dominick Ryan?" she said slowly, her eyes on the fire.

"Well, now," he answered with a slight rocking movement of his shoulders and a manner of almost bluff depreciation, "I can say that I wasn't, but suppose I was?"

She paid no attention to the last part of the sentence, and replied: "The woman said you were."

He did not answer for a minute, the truth being that he did not know what it was best to say, and wanted to wait and let her make statements that he could either contradict or seek to justify.

"What made you think I wanted to marry Dominick Ryan?" she said slowly, her eyes on the fire.

"Well, now," he answered with a slight rocking movement of his shoulders and a manner of almost bluff depreciation, "I can say that I wasn't, but suppose I was?"

She paid no attention to the last part of the sentence, and replied: "The woman said you were."

He did not answer for a minute, the truth being that he did not know what it was best to say, and wanted to wait and let her make statements that he could either contradict or seek to justify.

"What made you think I wanted to marry Dominick Ryan?" she said slowly, her eyes on the fire.

"Well, now," he answered with a slight rocking movement of his shoulders and a manner of almost bluff depreciation, "I can say that I wasn't, but suppose I was?"

She paid no attention to the last part of the sentence, and replied: "The woman said you were."

He did not answer for a minute, the truth being that he did not know what it was best to say, and wanted to wait and let her make statements that he could either contradict or seek to justify.

"What made you think I wanted to marry Dominick Ryan?" she said slowly, her eyes on the fire.

"Well, now," he answered with a slight rocking movement of his shoulders and a manner of almost bluff depreciation, "I can say that I wasn't, but suppose I was?"

She paid no attention to the last part of the sentence, and replied: "The woman said you were."

He did not answer for a minute, the truth being that he did not know what it was best to say, and wanted to wait and let her make statements that he could either contradict or seek to justify.

"What made you think I wanted to marry Dominick Ryan?" she said slowly, her eyes on the fire.

"Well, now," he answered with a slight rocking movement of his shoulders and a manner of almost bluff depreciation, "I can say that I wasn't, but suppose I was?"

She paid no attention to the last part of the sentence, and replied: "The woman said you were."

He did not answer for a minute, the truth being that he did not know what it was best to say, and wanted to wait and let her make statements that he could either contradict or seek to justify.

he had contracted.

Her father stared at her for the moment, chilled by a sense of unfamiliarity in her sudden assumption of an attitude of challenge and authority. He had often heard her inveigh against the divorcees so lightly obtained in the world about them. He had thought it one of those pretty ornamental prejudices of hers, that so gracefully adorned her youth and that he liked her to have when they did not interfere with anything of importance. Now, set up like a barrier in the path, he stopped before this one particular prejudice, perplexed at its sudden intrusion, unwilling to believe that it was not a frail, temporary obstruction to be put gently aside.

"Now listen, honey," said he persuasively, "that's all very well. I've got no right to interfere, and neither, we'll admit, has anybody. But sometimes you have to push away these little rights and polite customs. They're very nice for every-day use, but they're not for big occasions. I suppose the Good Samaritan didn't really have any right to stop and bind up the wounds of the man he found by the wayside. But I guess the feller he bound up was mighty glad that the Samaritan didn't have such a respect for etiquette and wait till he'd found somebody to introduce them."

"Oh, papa, that was different. Don't confuse me and make me seem a fool. I can't talk like you. I can't express it all clearly and shortly. I only know it's wrong; it's a sin. I wouldn't marry Dominick Ryan if he was divorced that way if it killed me to give him up."

"So if the woman voluntarily took the money and went away and got Dominick to grant her the divorce, Dominick being, as we know, a man of good record and spotless honor, you'd refuse to marry him?"

"I would, certainly. I would. It would be perfectly impossible for me to marry him under those circumstances. I should consider I was committing a sin, a particularly horrible and unforgivable sin."

"See here now, Rosey, just listen to me for a minute. Do you know what Dominick Ryan's marriage is? I don't suppose you do. But you do know that he married his mistress, a woman who lived with him eight months before he made her his wife. She wasn't an innocent young girl by any means. She knew all right where she was going. She established that relation with him with the intention of marrying him. She's a damned smart woman, and a damned unscrupulous one. That's not the kind of woman a man feels any particular respect for, or that a girl like you'd give a lot of sympathy to, is it?"

"I don't see that that would make any difference," she said. "I'm not thinking of her character, I'm thinking of her rights."

"And don't her character and her rights sort of dovetail into each other?"

"No, I don't see that they do. The law's above the character or the person. It's the law, without any question of the man or the woman."

"Oh, Rosey, dear, you're talking like a book, not like a girl who's got to live in a world with ordinary people in modern times. This woman, that you're arguing about as if she was the mother of the Gracchi, hasn't got any more morality or principle than you could put on the point of a pin."

"She's been quite good and proper since her marriage."

"Well, now, let's leave her and look at Dominick's side. He marries her honorably and lives with her for nearly three years. Every semblance of affection that he had for her gets rubbed off in those three years, every illusion goes. He's tied to a woman that he can't stand. He went up to Antelope that time because they'd had some sort of a scrap and he felt he couldn't breathe in the same house with her. He told me himself that they'd not lived as man and wife for nearly a year. Now, I don't know what you're going to say, but I think to keep on living in that state is all wrong. I'll borrow your expression, I think it's a sin."

She answered doggedly: "It's awful, but she's his wife. Oh, if you'd seen her face when she talked to me, her thin, mean, common face, all painted and powdered and so miserable!"

He thought she was wavering, that he saw in this unreasonable, illogical dodging of the point at issue a sign of defeat, and he pushed his advantage.

"And you—a girl of heart and feeling like you—would condemn that man and woman to go on living that lie, that useless, purposeless lie? I can't understand it. What good comes of it? What's the necessity for it? Do you realize what a man Dominick might be if he was married to the right woman, and had a decent home where he could live like a Christian? Why, he'd be a different creature. He'd have a future. He'd make his place in the community. All the world would be before him, and he'd mount up to where he belongs. And what is he now? Nothing. All the best in him's paralyzed by this hell of a box he's got himself into. The man's just withering up with despair."

It was almost too much. For a moment she did not answer, then said in a small voice like a child's: "You're making this very hard for me, papa."

"My God, Rosey," he cried, exasperated, "you're making it hard for yourself. It's you with your castron prejudices, and your obstinacy, who are making it hard."

"Well, I've got them," she said, rising to her feet. "I've got them, and they'll stay with me till I die. Nothing's going to change me in this. I can't argue and reason about them. They're part of me."

He had contracted.

Her father stared at her for the moment, chilled by a sense of unfamiliarity in her sudden assumption of an attitude of challenge and authority. He had often heard her inveigh against the divorcees so lightly obtained in the world about them. He had thought it one of those pretty ornamental prejudices of hers, that so gracefully adorned her youth and that he liked her to have when they did not interfere with anything of importance. Now, set up like a barrier in the path, he stopped before this one particular prejudice, perplexed at its sudden intrusion, unwilling to believe that it was not a frail, temporary obstruction to be put gently aside.

"Now listen, honey," said he persuasively, "that's all very well. I've got no right to interfere, and neither, we'll admit, has anybody. But sometimes you have to push away these little rights and polite customs. They're very nice for every-day use, but they're not for big occasions. I suppose the Good Samaritan didn't really have any right to stop and bind up the wounds of the man he found by the wayside. But I guess the feller he bound up was mighty glad that the Samaritan didn't have such a respect for etiquette and wait till he'd found somebody to introduce them."

"Oh, papa, that was different. Don't confuse me and make me seem a fool. I can't talk like you. I can't express it all clearly and shortly. I only know it's wrong; it's a sin. I wouldn't marry Dominick Ryan if he was divorced that way if it killed me to give him up."

"So if the woman voluntarily took the money and went away and got Dominick to grant her the divorce, Dominick being, as we know, a man of good record and spotless honor, you'd refuse to marry him?"

"I would, certainly. I would. It would be perfectly impossible for me to marry him under those circumstances. I should consider I was committing a sin, a particularly horrible and unforgivable sin."

"See here now, Rosey, just listen to me for a minute. Do you know what Dominick Ryan's marriage is? I don't suppose you do. But you do know that he married his mistress, a woman who lived with him eight months before he made her his wife. She wasn't an innocent young girl by any means. She knew all right where she was going. She established that relation with him with the intention of marrying him. She's a damned smart woman, and a damned unscrupulous one. That's not the kind of woman a man feels any particular respect for, or that a girl like you'd give a lot of sympathy to, is it?"

"I don't see that that would make any difference," she said. "I'm not thinking of her character, I'm thinking of her rights."

"And don't her character and her rights sort of dovetail into each other?"

"No, I don't see that they do. The law's above the character or the person. It's the law, without any question of the man or the woman."

"Oh, Rosey, dear, you're talking like a book, not like a girl who's got to live in a world with ordinary people in modern times. This woman, that you're arguing about as if she was the mother of the Gracchi, hasn't got any more morality or principle than you could put on the point of a pin."

"She's been quite good and proper since her marriage."

"Well, now, let's leave her and look at Dominick's side. He marries her honorably and lives with her for nearly three years. Every semblance of affection that he had for her gets rubbed off in those three years, every illusion goes. He's tied to a woman that he can't stand. He went up to Antelope that time because they'd had some sort of a scrap and he felt he couldn't breathe in the same house with her. He told me himself that they'd not lived as man and wife for nearly a year. Now, I don't know what you're going to say, but I think to keep on living in that state is all wrong. I'll borrow your expression, I think it's a sin."

She answered doggedly: "It's awful, but she's his wife. Oh, if you'd seen her face when she talked to me, her thin, mean, common face, all painted and powdered and so miserable!"

He thought she was wavering, that he saw in this unreasonable, illogical dodging of the point at issue a sign of defeat, and he pushed his advantage.

"And you—a girl of heart and feeling like you—would condemn that man and woman to go on living that lie, that useless, purposeless lie? I can't understand it. What good comes of it? What's the necessity for it? Do you realize what a man Dominick might be if he was married to the right woman, and had a decent home where he could live like a Christian? Why, he'd be a different creature. He'd have a future. He'd make his place in the community. All the world would be before him, and he'd mount up to where he belongs. And what is he now? Nothing. All the best in him's paralyzed by this hell of a box he's got himself into. The man's just withering up with despair."

It was almost too much. For a moment she did not answer, then said in a small voice like a child's: "You're making this very hard for me, papa."

"My God, Rosey," he cried, exasperated, "you're making it hard for yourself. It's you with your castron prejudices, and your obstinacy, who are making it hard."

"Well, I've got them," she said, rising to her feet. "I've got them, and they'll stay with me till I die. Nothing's going to change me in this. I can't argue and reason about them. They're part of me."

He had contracted.

Her father stared at her for the moment, chilled by a sense of unfamiliarity in her sudden assumption of an attitude of challenge and authority. He had often heard her inveigh against the divorcees so lightly obtained in the world about them. He had thought it one of those pretty ornamental prejudices of hers, that so gracefully adorned her youth and that he liked her to have when they did not interfere with anything of importance. Now, set up like a barrier in the path, he stopped before this one particular prejudice, perplexed at its sudden intrusion, unwilling to believe that it was not a frail, temporary obstruction to be put gently aside.

"Now listen, honey," said he persuasively, "that's all very well. I've got no right to interfere, and neither, we'll admit, has anybody. But sometimes you have to push away these little rights and polite customs. They're very nice for every-day use, but they're not for big occasions. I suppose the Good Samaritan didn't really have any right to stop and bind up the wounds of the man he found by the wayside. But I guess the feller he bound up was mighty glad that the Samaritan didn't have such a respect for etiquette and wait till he'd found somebody to introduce them."

"Oh, papa, that was different. Don't confuse me and make me seem a fool. I can't talk like you. I can't express it all clearly and shortly. I only know it's wrong; it's a sin. I wouldn't marry Dominick Ryan if he was divorced that way if it killed me to give him up."

"So if the woman voluntarily took the money and went away and got Dominick to grant her the divorce, Dominick being, as we know, a man of good record and spotless honor, you'd refuse to marry him?"

"I would, certainly. I would. It would be perfectly impossible for me to marry him under those circumstances. I should consider I was committing a sin, a particularly horrible and unforgivable sin."

"See here now, Rosey, just listen to me for a minute. Do you know what Dominick Ryan's marriage is? I don't suppose you do. But you do know that he married his mistress, a woman who lived with him eight months before he made her his wife. She wasn't an innocent young girl by any means. She knew all right where she was going. She established that relation with him with the intention of marrying him. She's a damned smart woman, and a damned unscrupulous one. That's not the kind of woman a man feels any particular respect for, or that a girl like you'd give a lot of sympathy to, is it?"

"I don't see that that would make any difference," she said. "I'm not thinking of her character, I'm thinking of her rights."

"And don't her character and her rights sort of dovetail into each other?"

"No, I don't see that they do. The law's above the character or the person. It's the law, without any question of the man or the woman."

"Oh, Rosey, dear, you're talking like a book, not like a girl who's got to live in a world with ordinary people in modern times. This woman, that you're arguing about as if she was the mother of the Gracchi, hasn't got any more morality or principle than you could put on the point of a pin."

"She's been quite good and proper since her marriage."

"Well, now, let's leave her and look at Dominick's side. He marries her honorably and lives with her for nearly three years. Every semblance of affection that he had for her gets rubbed off in those three years, every illusion goes. He's tied to a woman that he can't stand. He went up to Antelope that time because they'd had some sort of a scrap and he felt he couldn't breathe in the same house with her. He told me himself that they'd not lived as man and wife for nearly a year. Now, I don't know what you're going to say, but I think to keep on living in that state is all wrong. I'll borrow your expression, I think it's a sin."

he had contracted.

Her father stared at her for the moment, chilled by a sense of unfamiliarity in her sudden assumption of an attitude of challenge and authority. He had often heard her inveigh against the divorcees so lightly obtained in the world about them. He had thought it one of those pretty ornamental prejudices of hers, that so gracefully adorned her youth and that he liked her to have when they did not interfere with anything of importance. Now, set up like a barrier in the path, he stopped before this one particular prejudice, perplexed at its sudden intrusion, unwilling to believe that it was not a frail, temporary obstruction to be put gently aside.

"Now listen, honey," said he persuasively, "that's all very well. I've got no right to interfere, and neither, we'll admit, has anybody. But sometimes you have to push away these little rights and polite customs. They're very nice for every-day use, but they're not for big occasions. I suppose the Good Samaritan didn't really have any right to stop and bind up the wounds of the man he found by the wayside. But I guess the feller he bound up was mighty glad that the Samaritan didn't have such a respect for etiquette and wait till he'd found somebody to introduce them."

ESTABLISHED 1859.
J. B. SCHRICHTER SONS
MONUMENTS, MAUSOLEUMS, EXAMINE OUR LARGE DISPLAY.
WE ARE PREPARED TO SAVE YOU MONEY.
MONTELLO MILLSTONE
And All Popular Granites in our Large Stock. We Can Please You Come and See us and be convinced.
117-121 South Main Street, RUSHVILLE, INDIANA.

THE MADDEN BROTHERS CO.
MACHINISTS
REPAIR WORK IS OUR SPECIALTY
Have your old Machinery repaired and made good as new. Steam and Gas Engine Repairing a Specialty. Call and see our St. Mary's Semi-Automatic Gas and Gasoline Engines before you buy. 2 1/2, 4 and 7 horse power. BUILT FOR HARD SERVICE ON THE FARM.
We Grind and Sharpen Lawn Mowers, Mowers, Sickles, Plow Points, Cutter Knives, Etc.
Phone 1632. 517 to 519 West Second Street.

DAILY MARKETS

Indianapolis Grain and Livestock.
Wheat—Wagon, $1.01; No. 2 red, $1.02 1/2. Corn—No. 3, 77 1/2c. Oats—No. 2 white, 35c. Hay—Baled, $10.00 @ 14.00; timothy, $19.00 @ 21.00; mixed, $20.00 @ 23.00. Cattle—$3.00 @ 9.50. Hogs—$5.00 @ 8.45. Sheep—$3.00 @ 4.60. Lambs—$5.00 @ 7.00. Receipts—8,000 hogs; 1,400 cattle; 1,100 sheep.
At Cincinnati.
Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.08. Corn—No. 2, 77 1/2c. Oats—No. 2, 54c. Cattle—$4.00 @ 8.50. Hogs—$5.00 @ 8.50. Sheep—$1.25 @ 3.75. Lambs—$3.00 @ 7.50.
At Chicago.
Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.02. Corn—No. 3, 74 1/2c. Oats—No. 2, 54 1/2c. Cattle—Steers, $4.00 @ 9.85; stockers and feeders, $4.00 @ 6.90. Hogs—$5.50 @ 8.35. Sheep—$4.50 @ 5.10. Lambs—$4.00 @ 7.50.
At St. Louis.
Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.03 1/2. Corn—No. 2, 75 1/2c. Oats—No. 2, 35 1/2c. Cattle—Steers, $5.00 @ 9.85. Hogs—$5.25 @ 8.20. Sheep—$3.25 @ 4.80. Lambs—$4.60 @ 7.75.

The local elevators are paying the following prices for grain today, August 3, 1912:
Wheat ..... 95c
Oats ..... 26c to 28c
Corn ..... 65c
Timothy Seed ..... $3.00 to $3.50
Clover Seed ..... $8.00

The following are the ruling prices of the Rushville market, corrected to date—August 3, 1912:
POULTRY.
Geese ..... 3c
Turkeys ..... 10c
Spring Chickens ..... 15c
Hens on foot per pound ..... 10c
Ducks ..... 7c

PRODUCE
Eggs ..... 18c
Butter ..... 20c

Want Ad Department

Advertisements under this head are charged for at the rate of one-third cent per word for each insertion. The same ad will be placed in the Indianapolis Star and Daily Republican at the combined rate of one cent per word. Found articles of small value will be advertised free of charge.

FOR SALE—Best Michigan Salt, $1.20 per barrel. C. W. Hinkle & Co. 70tf

FOR SALE—Jersey Cow with heifer calf at her side. Bert Ormes. Phone 1289. Rushville. 105tf

B. F. MILLER—makes farm loans on terms that look very good to the borrower. 110tf

FOR RENT—West half dwelling 830 West Eighth St. Inquire Walter E. Smith. 121tf

WANTED—second hand base burner. "Favorite" preferred, at F. T. Gale's Pocket Billiard Parlor. 122tf

Wanted—good hustling agent in your town to sell Witter Water. Write today to JAMES B. WHITE, Indiana Distributor of Witter Water 609-610 Peoples Trust Bldg., 114410 Ft. Wayne, Ind.

LOST—a chautauqua ticket. Finder please return to 203 West First street. 122tf

LOST—a blue enamel pin, diamond shape with gold greek letters and name on back. Finder please return to Helen Scudder 402 West Second and receive reward. 121tf

FOR RENT—a good 6 room house on good street. Moderate rent. Apply to Dr. C. H. Gilbert, 331 North Main street. 83tf

FOR SALE—Watkins Medicine wagon complete. First class condition, almost new. Would do for light buckster wagon. Will sell right at Oneal Bros., Rushville, Ind. 123tf

SCRATCH PADS—4 1/2 x 7, for sale at the Republican office at 5c. per pound. Convenient and cheap for figuring and memoranda.

FOR RENT—1 furnished room and meals. 927 North Perkins. 22tf

COUCH—a soft couch with head which can be raised or lowered, for sale at a sacrifice. Call on J. Feudner at the Republican office. 112tf

FOR RENT—3 room flat over Maude Reed Wolcott store, bath and cistern. Phones 3378 or 1227. 119tf

LOST—a ladies pocketbook. Finder please return to 619 East Seventh street and receive reward. 121tf

WANTED—to buy 60 to 80 acres of land. Call phone 1150. 107tf

FOR SALE—1 five room cottage in North Sexton street. A. E. Newhouse. Phone 1150. 100tf

MONEY—to lend on farms. No commission. The Union Trust Company of Indianapolis. 108tf

FOR SALE—Farm of 91 acres on Rushville and Connersville road, 3 miles west of Connersville 1/2 mile from traction line. This farm is being sold to settle an estate. A good farm in a good location. Will P. Alexander, Connersville, Ind., R. R. No. 4. D2teach W2mo

LOST—guardian's receipt book. Return to Laura Joyce, 601 North Jackson St., Rushville, Ind. 117tf

OLD PAPERS—Nice clean newspapers—5 cents a large bundle at The Daily Republican office.

WANTED—any and all kinds of hats cleaned and blocked. Harry Hawkins at Simmes Shoe Shop. 123tf

FOR SALE—Fifty horse power, Grass-Compound traction engine, used ninety days, for unimproved land or adjoining town or city. Realty Sales Co., Georgetown, Ill. 123tf

FOR RENT—house of 6 rooms with bath. Newly decorated. Second house east of Main on Seventh. Call Mrs. H. T. Carr. Phone 1184. 80tf

NEW BAND AT STATE FAIR.

PATRICK CONWAY.
The Patrick Conway band of New York, foremost among the great concert bands of America, will give afternoon concerts in the state fair coliseum, week of Sept. 2.

STATE FAIR'S EXTENT
INDIANA EXPOSITION WILL OVERFLOW WITH ATTRACTIONS.
Strong Features for City, Town and Country People Each Day and Night —Education for the Farm Men and Women.

The Indiana state fair, highly flavored with educational interest and entertaining features which appeal strongly to men, women and children from farm, town and city, will open its fifty-ninth exposition, at Indianapolis, on Labor Day, Sept. 2, and for five days and nights Hoosiers by the tens of thousands will attend this the one great event of the Indiana year which all people without caste or class enjoy.

For people who go to the fair largely for entertainment, the exposition will offer a great array of attractions in concerts by four large bands, livestock shows and parades, a great building filled to capacity with fine art display, a rich show of Hoosier orchard and vineyard products, and another of poultry, trotting and pacing races, a "midway" of carnival shows. In addition to all of these features which will alike interest and entertain people from town and farm, the fair will especially emphasize educational factors as magnets for men and women who are developing the great resources of the Hoosier soil. The very best that the state is yielding in agricultural, horticultural, dairy products and blue blooded stock will be shown in endless array that the people from the farms may compare the displays with the yields of their own lands, and the fair exhibits will offer inspiration to men and women who strive for greater quality and quantity, for greater wealth and comforts which are sure to come from work intelligently done at home. Nearly forty acres of machinery for use in field, orchard, dairy and farm home will point out to fair visitors from the country the way to economize in their work and still achieve greater results.

Combined with these educational examples which appeal to the eye, the fair will offer instructions of an intensely practical kind to farm workers in lectures and demonstrations on a long list of subjects. This instruction will be of collegiate quality for men and women who cannot take the time to attend an agricultural university. Farm chemistry, feed for live stock, crop and weed seeds, milk testing and butter making, reviving old orchards and the development of new, and household economics are some of the subjects which will be capably handled by twenty experts from Purdue university. State Entomologist Baldwin will have a large exhibit of insects that are enemies to the farm and will discuss methods of spraying for these evils and orchard diseases with which the farmer contends.

A general revision of the premium list has been made for the next fair, which is expected to increase the quality of exhibits in all departments where prize ribbons are awarded. The total prizes offered amount to $57,115, divided as follows: Races, $19,200; draft horses, $3,820; coach horses, $820; mules, $500; saddle horses, $480; saddlers in the horse show, $1,900; harness horses, $4,040; ponies, $860. This makes the total awards on horses $31,600.

In the cattle department the prizes amount to $11,133, divided as follows: Beef breeds, $7,463; dual purposes, $872; dairy, $2,800. In other departments the totals are: Dairy and creamery, $214; boys' judging contest, $250; sheep, $3,276; swine, $3,001; poultry, $3,178; agriculture, $1,322; horticulture, $458; plants and flowers, $1,632; bees and honey, $248; table livestock, $284.15; fine arts, $1,544.50.

WARNING GIVEN TO THE WORLD
Foreign Powers Must Keep Hands Off.
CLINCHES MONROE DOCTRINE

Historic Affirmation Is Strengthened by the Action of the Senate in Adopting the Lodge Resolution Bearing on Our Policy in Relation to Questions Raised by the Recent Magdalena Bay Incident.

Washington, Aug. 3.—Warning the powers of the world that the United States will not tolerate the occupation by any foreign corporation or association of territory on the American continent which may be used for military or naval purposes, the senate has passed the Lodge resolution. Only four senators voted against the resolution. They were Cummins of Iowa and McCumber of North Dakota, Republicans, and Stone of Missouri and Percy of Mississippi, Democrats. The passage by the senate of this resolution marks the enunciation of an important new policy in our international relations.

Mr. Lodge pointed out in reply to questions that the resolution was more than the mere reaffirmation and extension of the Monroe doctrine. It was the enunciation of a policy which this government might have adopted had the Monroe doctrine never been heard of. The new doctrine is, Mr. Lodge contended, based on the same right which England exercised a year or so ago when she warned Germany against the occupation of the port of Agadir, in Morocco. That incident, it will be recalled, caused a crisis in international affairs and a war was narrowly averted.

Some members of the senate regard the passage of this resolution of far-reaching importance to the United States. These senators are looking into the future and are confident that Magdalena Bay will be a vital point for the United States to control, at least negatively, when the Panama canal shall have been opened and the flood of traffic has begun to flow through it. Magdalena Bay is about half way between San Francisco and Panama and is one of the finest harbors imaginable. Some officials in Washington go so far as to assert that with the Panama canal in operation the United States government sooner or later will be obliged to make serious efforts to purchase Lower California from Mexico.

It is understood that the administration is inclined to look with disfavor upon the Lodge resolution, regarding it as unnecessarily inviting discussion abroad of the Monroe doctrine.

EARLY ARREST
Is Expected of Two More Rosenthal Case Suspects.

New York, Aug. 3.—"Twenty central office men and a force of deputy sheriffs have GIB the Blood and Lefty Louie surrounded in their hiding place in the Catskills. The gun men are under cover less than 100 miles from New York. We believe that they will be under arrest by tonight."

That statement was made in the office of Police Commissioner Waldo. The commissioner had received word from the detectives, who have been pitching hay and milking the cows of Delaware and Ulster counties while they waited for the murderers of Herman Rosenthal to slip into the sunlight from their mountain retreats.

Boy Fell Into Mowing Machine.
Bloomington, Ind., Aug. 3.—Orville Johnson, aged twelve, of this city, was killed by falling into a mowing machine while preparing to go to dinner. He had unfastened one trace of the harness and forgot to unfasten the other. He started to ride to the house when the horse became frightened and threw the boy into the path of the machine. The blades cut into Johnson's heart.

Stranger Cashied Forged Check.
Hartford City, Ind., Aug. 3.—The First National bank of this city was fleeced of $500 when a stranger presented a check for $743 in favor of C. J. Townsend and signed by H. C. Templeton, a wealthy, retired business man of this city. The stranger asked for $500 in cash and obtained a certificate of deposit for $243. An investigation showed the check to be a forgery.

WEATHER EVERYWHERE

Observations of United States weather bureaus taken at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:

Temp.	Weather.
New York..... 70	Cloudy
Boston..... 66	Rain
Denver..... 58	Clear
San Francisco.. 53	Cloudy
St. Paul..... 48	Clear
Indianapolis... 68	Clear
Chicago..... 62	Clear
St. Louis..... 74	Cloudy
New Orleans... 80	Cloudy
Washington... 68	Rain

Fair, moderate temperature.

JOSEPH E. DAVIS
New Secretary of the Democratic National Committee.

Photo © 1912, by American Press Association.

Mr. Davis is located with Chairman William F. McCombs in the campaign committee's New York headquarters. Upon him will fall the burden of the great mass of correspondence detail in connection with the campaign.

SOUTHERN NEGROES NEED NOT APPLY
No Place for Them In the Colonel's Party.

New York, Aug. 3.—An open letter reading southern negroes out of the national Progressive party has been sent by Colonel Roosevelt to Julian Harris of Atlanta. He frankly entrusts the movement to the "best white men of the south." He attributes the recent split in the Republican party to the dominance of negroes over the party in the southern states. He says it would be "criminal" for the Progressive party to try to build itself up in those states by the same methods which, continued for forty-five years, have made the Republican party "worse than impotent."

"All that could possibly result from such action," says the colonel, "would be to create another little corrupt faction of would-be officeholders, of delegates whose expenses to convention had to be paid and whose votes some times had to be bought."

He hopes the negro will get justice eventually, but says justice is impossible "if we are to continue and perpetuate present conditions."

He points out that negro delegates from southern states will attend the convention and says that in states the Progressive party is endeavoring to act with fuller recognition of the rights of the colored man ever the Republican party.

THE RESULT OF OUR METHODS

in cleaning and pressing soiled and worn clothing oftentimes is a pleasing surprise to those who are not acquainted with our skill, but we know what we know and what is more, are able to apply our knowledge, skill and experience to a practical purpose and we can clean any garment, lace, silks, velvets, draperies or anything that is worth cleaning, and few soiled articles are not. Give us a trial test and let us convince you.

HART BROS., Tailors
Corner First and Main St., Rushville, Ind.

Room Lots of Wall Paper AT ONE-HALF PRICE
LET US SHOW YOU
F. B. Johnson & Co.
Drugs, Wall Paper, Paints and Window Shades
Free Delivery Phone 1408

GETTING UP IN THE WORLD

is what everyone wants to do. Acquiring real estate for a home is one of the first requisites toward this desirable end. Look over our list of properties, which are constantly increasing in value, and there you will find your opportunity. Let us point out the advantages of these investments to you. Farms of all kinds and sizes at right prices. Also city property.

Elder & Cherry

End Your Tire Troubles

Use "Kan't Blo" inner liners for your outer casings. We carry a full line of the I. J. Cooper Red Inner Tubes—none better. Our tire repair department is in charge of an experienced man. Our Auto Livery is prompt and all calls answered at any time.

BALL & SMELSER
Phone 340 North of Court House Rushville

LOCAL CHURCHES TO PARTICIPATE

Nineteenth Annual Meeting of Flat Rock Baptist Association
Meets Next Week.

AT LEWIS CREEK IN SHELBY

Shelbyville Makes Arrangements to Entertain Delegates in That City—Long Program.

The nineteenth annual meeting of the Flat Rock Baptist Association, which is composed of thirty churches in Shelby, Bartholomew, Decatur, Rush, Wayne and Johnson counties, will be held at the Lewis Creek Baptist church, six miles south of this city beginning Tuesday evening, August 6, and continuing till Thursday afternoon, August 8, says the Shelbyville Democrat. The pastors from all the churches will be present to take part in the program and a number of the most prominent ministers of the denomination will be present to make addresses.

For the accommodation of visitors the First Baptist church of Shelbyville has made arrangements to run a back line from the church in this city to the Lewisville Creek church and a fare of twenty-five cents will be charged for the round trip. Many of the delegates will be entertained in this city and the rest in the vicinity of the Lewis Creek church.

The Franklin college male quartet will be present at the B. Y. P. U. session to assist with the musical program which is to be a feature of the meeting. The program in full for the meeting will be as follows:

Tuesday Evening, August 6.

B. Y. P. U.

7:30—Praise service, Pastor F. Lavel.

8:00—Address, Rev. S. C. Dhruv, D. D.

Wednesday Morning, August 7.

Association Proper.

10:00—Devotional, Pastor A. H. Allen.

10:20—Introductory sermon, Pastor W. O. Stovall.

10:50—Reading of letters.

11:50—Business. Introduction of representatives.

Afternoon Session.

1:30—Praise service, Pastor A. Slaughter.

1:45—Completion of letter reading.

2:00 Report on Associational Evangelism and Missions, S. C. Lee.

Address, Pastor J. E. Fradenburg.

2:30—Report of State Missions, Pastor J. V. Fradenburg.

Address, Dr. W. B. Pope.

3:10—Report of Minister's Aid, Col. M. C. Welch.

Address, Pastor H. N. Spear.

3:30—Sermon, doctrinal, Pastor S. G. Huntington.

Evening Session.

7:15—Praise service, Pastor R. W. Clark.

7:30—Publication Society Report, Mrs. Vesta Adkins.

Address, Rev. S. L. Roberts.

8:10—Christian Education Report, Chester Sandefur.

Address, Dr. E. A. Hanley.

Thursday Morning, August 8.

9:00—Devotional, Pastor W. A. Kleckner.

9:15—Mission Work as Conducted by Our Women—State, Home and Foreign.

Addresses, Mrs. Lena Templeton and others.

10:30—Report Home Missions, Pastor W. H. Lemasters.

Report Foreign Missions, R. W. Clark.

Address by a representative.

11:20—Why and How to Raise Our Apportionments, Pastor C. F. Dame.

11:50—Miscellaneous.

Afternoon.

1:30—Devotional, Pastor W. T. Markland.

1:45—The Baptist Observer, Mrs. Nannie Harker.

2:00—The Crawford Industrial School, Mrs. Walter Thompson.

2:15—Report of Committees on Resolutions and Ordinances.

2:40—Sermon, Pastor, D. Heitmeyer.

RURAL SCHOOL IS LAGGARD

That is Assertion of E. T. Fairchild, Kansas State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

MAKES REPORT TO U.S. BUREAU

Declares Less Than 25 Per Cent of County School Children Finish Grades.

"The rural school is the one laggard in the educational procession," declares E. T. Fairchild, Kansas State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a monograph just published for free distributed by the United States Bureau of Education.

This condition is due, among other things, to the fact that the emphasis of educational thought has been placed on the city schools, the high schools, and colleges, at the expense of the rural school. Mr. Fairchild also finds that "the ever-increasing trend of population toward the cities, and the growing per cent. of tenant farmers, have had a distinct and deterrent effect upon our country schools."

"The following is a true, though not a full indictment," continues Mr. Fairchild. "Of the 12,000,000 rural school children, constituting a clear majority of the whole number of the youth of school age, less than 25 per cent. are completing the work of the grades. The teaching body is immature and lacks proper training. Terms are short."

"School buildings are poor, insanitary, and ill-equipped. The school enrollment is constantly decreasing. The supervision is wholly inadequate. Cost of instruction is higher than in the grades. High school privileges are denied the great majority of these boys and girls."

"The strong, virile, rural school of a generation ago has gone, and in its place is a primary school weak in numbers and lacking in efficiency. The country boy and girl of this strenuous and complex twentieth century are not afforded equal educational opportunities."

"A vital weakness in our rural school system is the lack of a genuine demand for properly trained teachers. I have knowledge of one state that bears an excellent reputation educationally where, out 8,000 rural school teachers in 1910, 4,400 were found to have had no training beyond the eighth grade."

"If we want to get more out of the rural schools, we must put more into them. We can never have the best rural schools until we have aroused public interest in them. The national life and character of tomorrow is set and directed by the schools of today."

"The country is the nation's great recruiting ground. To it the city has always looked for its supply of men who do the great things, who command armies, build industries, take the initiative."

"It is true that the cities are the centers of organization, but they are not self-sustaining. The rural population must always be the bone and sinew of the country. More than one-half of our school population is trained in the rural schools. These schools are inadequate."

MAYOR BLACK'S FATHER ILL

Aged Man Said to be in Serious Condition.

B. T. Black, father of Mayor B. A. Black is seriously ill at the home of his daughter in Greensburg. Mayor Black visited his father yesterday a short time while enroute to North Vernon. Mr. Black is 85 years old, and because of his advanced age recovery is doubtful. He has been in a serious condition for several weeks.

There will be no Epworth League at the St. Paul M. E. church tomorrow evening on account of the chautauqua.

Impersonator at Chautauqua

SIDNEY LANDON.

HE WANTS ARBOR DAY OBSERVED

State Forester Charles C. Deam Will Seek Legislative Recognition of the Custom.

ESPECIALLY IN THE SCHOOLS

Charles C. Deam and Charles A. Greathouse, State superintendent of public instruction, will engineer a bill through the 1913 session of the general assembly, seeking to have Arbor day set aside by statute for observance in the public schools. Heretofore the day has been set aside by gubernatorial proclamations and this year there were two Arbor days scheduled, one in the spring and the other in the fall. The date for the latter has not been fixed, but will be decided by Mr. Greathouse and Mr. Deam. Mr. Deam believes that a date near the middle of April should be legalized by the legislature for Arbor day each year. The State superintendent is preparing material for a booklet to be issued in observance of Arbor day and it will go to the printer about the time the date is decided. The State board of forestry has been consulted concerning the advisability of a legislative enactment with Arbor day as a subject and all of the members have agreed to such a plan, according to Mr. Deam.

2 CANDIDATES FROM SMALLEST COUNTY

"Fair Play" Suggests That Vote be Divided Between Two Union County Aspirants.

FOR CONGRESSIONAL HONOR

Union is the smallest in the district and Liberty is probably the smallest county seat, yet it has two congressional candidates ready to enter the race Tuesday week. A card signed "Fair Play" published in the Liberty Herald suggests that the local delegate vote be divided equally between Mr. Bassett and Mr. Stivers. To this the Herald says:

Certainly the writer of the above is in accord with the views of all fair minded members of the party in Union county, since there has been no primary election by which a preference could be expressed.

The Senior editor of the Herald, who is one of the county's candidates for the congressional nomination, heartily agrees to the fairness of the ideas suggested in the above communication, as the same is in harmony with many expressions by Republican voters.

In this connection we are glad to report that there is a growing feeling in the district over in favor of the nomination of a Union county man.

CAMPAIGN BUNK.

Marion Chronicle: The facility with which the Indianapolis Star swells a gathering of four men on a cracker box to a vast throng of enthusiasts cheering Roosevelt, Lee, Stilwell and Beveridge shows that in the matter of campaign bunk, at least, it is ultra-progressive.

DEAM OUT IN SEARCH OF DATA

Secretary of State Board of Forestry Wants Information About Cement Posts.

A PLAN FOR CONSERVATION

Would Replace Wood Fence Posts With Them If it is Practicable.

Will farmers use concrete fence posts instead of wood posts and will they serve the same purpose satisfactorily? That is the question which is uppermost in the mind of Charles C. Deam, secretary of the State Board of Forestry just now. He is attempting to gather data along this line, believing that the replacing of wood posts by those built of concrete one will help in the general plan to conserve the forests of Indiana. In the following bulletin he asks aid in his work:

Can concrete line fence posts be made to take the place of wood posts? If they can, there will be a great saving of our forests; and it will be much more economic for the consumer. Their use will also modify to some extent the management of the woodlot and the abandonment of the planting of catalpa and locusts, etc., for post purposes.

The State board of forestry is gathering information on their use in this State. They desire to learn to what extent they are used and with what success. The board will greatly appreciate the favor of a report from those who read this article and have had experience with concrete line posts. Write to the State forester, Indianapolis, Ind., stating how many posts you have and how long they have been set; whether you have bought ready made posts or if you made them yourself; if purchased, at what price; give size; how reinforced; and any other information you deem of importance.

Concrete line fence posts are already successfully used in many parts of the State and it is confidently believed that their use will soon be general. It was only a few years ago that concrete sidewalks were considered a failure, and we shall not be surprised if it will take some time to learn how to make a durable fence post. It is an important thing to perfect a concrete post, when it is considered that there are at least a million fence posts used each year in Indiana.

AND POSTS, TOO.

Greenfield Reporter: Cary Jackson of Rushville, Democratic candidate for joint senator from Fayette Hancock and Rush counties, in company with Howard E. Barrett, S. L. Trabue, Floyd Hogsett and G. P. Hunt was in Greenfield Thursday afternoon calling on the Democrats and looking after his political fences in this part of the district.

CAN YOU AFFORD

To Risk Your Valuable Papers where they may be Lost or Destroyed, when for a Small Sum you Can Protect Them in one of Our Safety Deposit Boxes.

We Invite Your Business.

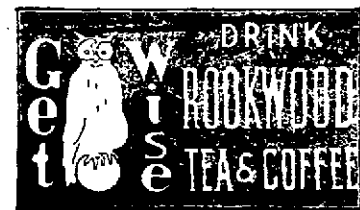

The Peoples Loan & Trust Co.
Rushville, Indiana
"The Home for Savings"

Let Us Show You The New Model No. 5 L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

THE ONLY MECHANICALLY PERFECT
Typewriter on the Market

Wm. B. Poe & Son
Local Representative

We carry a complete Line of Typewriter Supplies. High Grade Typewriter Ribbons for any make machine, 60c each.
Repairing and Cleaning Typewriters is One of Our Specialties.

Fred Cochran, Grocer
105 W. First St. Phone 3293

Bargains For Every One

Prices in All Oxford Pumps and Straps
Cut to Suit Your Purse

We have more than we want and must turn them into cash at once

$4.00 Foster Oxfords and Pumps.....$3.25

$3.50 Foster Oxfords and Pumps.....$2.75

One lot $2.25 and $2.50 Oxfords and Pumps at $1.50

One lot White Canvas Pumps, $2.50 grade at $1.50

A lot of Oxfords in Kid, Patent Leather, Gun

Metal and Tan, ranging in price from $2.50 to

$3.50 for.....$1.50

These prices are positively for cash, so don't ask us to charge them, as we will have to refuse you

BEN A. COX, The Shoe Man

High Temperature Goods AT LOW PRICES

45c Embroidery Flouncings, now.....1/3 off
$1.00 Grade now.....57c
$1.25 Grade now.....85c
$1.50 Grade now.....$1.00
$2.00 Grade now.....$1.35
$1.00 Fancy Silks now.....80c
50c Fancy Silks now.....30c
10c and 12 1/2c Lawns now.....7 1/2c
15c Batiste now.....10c
25c Tissue now.....15c
10c and 12 1/2c Dress Gingham.....7 1/2c
One Lot 18c Galetea.....12 1/2c
One Lot 18c Crepe.....12 1/2c
Ladies' 50c Hose, fancy colors, now.....25c

Children's 25c Lace Hose, black, tan and white, now.....10c
One Lot Remnants, now per yard.....5c Choice of Wash Dresses, white or colors, at.....Half Price
All White Waists at.....Half Price
One-third Off on all Long Coats.
$25.00 and $30.00 Tailored Suits.....$12.45
$18.00 and $22.50 Tailored Suits.....$9.95
One Lot Two-piece House Dresses,
$1.00 and $1.25 Grade, now.....50c
Silk Waists at.....Half Price
One Lot 5c and 6 1/2c Laces, now.....3c
One Lot 50c and 75c Silk Gloves, fancy colors.....25c

Kennedy & Casady

PHONE 1142

PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERNS

225 NORTH MAIN ST.